Uncovering the Theme of Revelation in Romans 1:16-3:26 Marcus A. Mininger, 2017-09-19 Past study of Rom 1:16-3:26 focuses on individual salvation or on social relations and also produces a host of interpretative quandaries Marcus A Mininger develops a new approach which includes but goes beyond these foci by unearthing the theme of revelation that runs throughout Paul's argument largely unnoticed More than a proof of sin or of social equality Paul provides a survey of numerous visible revelations in which otherwise invisible realities like God's wrath the power of sin and God's righteousness are seen through the observable effects they produce in different people Read this way the rationale of Paul's argument becomes quite clear including for problem texts like Rom 2 and 3 1 8 as Paul proves that the gospel not the law overcomes sin's power and that God's righteousness always exists in contrast to the human condition in this age From publisher's description Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly, 1895
