Social Torment W. Thom Workman, 2003 This in depth study of globalization s effect on Atlantic Canada considers not simply the gross national Product and its measures of the economic trends of the corporate elite but the social indices that track globalization s impact on working people the working poor people on social assistance and the elderly Healthcare education the environment and the local economy demonstrate the affluency or desperation of communities and it is argued that these measures reflect the devastating effects of free trade and privatization in Atlantic Canada A positive vision for the Canadian and international economy that emphasizes human need over corporate greed is outlined to promote social change

Globalisation, Global Justice and Social Work Iain Ferguson, Michael Lavalette, Elisabeth Whitmore, 2005-08-15 Globalization has become a seemingly unstoppable force over recent decades and in its wake global notions of social justice have developed in response to its negative aspects Neo liberal economic policies have been a key element in the wider process of globalization and these policies have had a profound impact on welfare provision and the shape of social work practice Arising dissatisfaction among users of welfare and social work services is fuelling the search for a new more radical social work that is firmly rooted in principles of social justice Globalisation Global Justice and Social Work explores the global effects of neo liberal policies on welfare services in different countries with contributions from social work academics practitioners and welfare activists around the world The first section of the book presents case studies of impact of neo liberalism on welfare systems social service provision and the practice of social work In the second section the chapters explore the relationship between social work practice and the struggle for social justice Authors discuss the personal and political dilemmas they have had to address in seeking to link a personal commitment to social justice with their daily practice as workers and educators in social work The final section assesses the prospects for social work practice based on notions of social justice by looking at what can be learned from the experience of previous radical movements as well as from emergent global and local movements

The CSI Effect Michele Byers, Val Marie Johnson, 2009-01-01 The CSI Effect Television Crime and Governance demonstrates that CSI's appeal cannot be disentangled from its production as a televisual text or the broader discourses and practices that circulate within our social landscape This groundbreaking interdisciplinary collection bridges the gap between the study of popular culture media and the study of crime and fosters the development of a new set of theoretical languages in which the mediated spectacle of crime and criminalization can be carefully considered

For Folk's Sake Erin Morton, 2016-11-01 Folk art emerged in twentieth century Nova Scotia not as an accident of history but in tandem with cultural policy developments that shaped art institutions across the province between 1967 and 1997 For Folk's Sake charts how woodcarvings and paintings by well known and obscure self taught makers and their connection to handwork local history and place fed the public's nostalgia for a simpler past The folk artists examined here range from the well known self taught painter Maud Lewis to the relatively anonymous woodcarvers Charles Atkinson Ralph Boutilier Collins Eisenhauer and Clarence Mooers These artists are connected by the ways in which their work fascinated those active in the contemporary Canadian art world at a time when modernism and the art market that once sustained it had reached a crisis As folk art entered the public collection of the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia and the private collections of professors at the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design it evolved under the direction of collectors and curators who sought it out according to a particular modernist aesthetic language Morton engages national and transnational developments that helped to shape ideas about folk art to show how a conceptual category took material form Generously illustrated For Folk's Sake interrogates the emotive pull of folk art and reconstructs the relationships that emerged between relatively impoverished self taught artists a new brand of middle class collector and academically trained professors and curators in Nova Scotia's most important art institutions

Nights below Foord Street Peter Thompson, 2020-02-06 According to its licence plates tourist brochures and commercials Nova Scotia is Canada's Ocean Playground an idyllic vacation spot brimming with traditional cultural experiences Yet this picturesque and welcoming ad friendly facade overlooks the province's history of industrial development the impact of resource extraction on its landscape and the effects of its painful and still unfinished period of deindustrialization Recounting Nova Scotia's struggle to come to terms with its extractive and industrial past Nights below Foord Street focuses on the spaces ignored by the province's annual Doers and Dreamers tourist guide Drawing on literary texts by Lynn Coady Leo McKay Sarah Mian and Jonathan Campbell popular television shows such as Trailer Park Boys and films including Blackbird Cottonland and Poor Boy's Game Peter Thompson examines the ways in which contemporary authors filmmakers and artists explore the lingering consequences of the boom and bust cycles of mining and manufacturing As he demonstrates these narratives depict a legacy of environmental exploitation pollution intermittent disasters and labour violence left behind by the industrial era all of which

contrast starkly with the romantic and nostalgic portrait of Nova Scotia's industrial heritage promoted in museums monuments and tourist sites As Donald Trump and other populist politicians appeal to working class nostalgia and international attention converges on environmental racism in northern Nova Scotia Nights below Foord Street intervenes into debates over the cultural and social effects of the post industrial economy      From the Net to the Net R. James Sacouman, Henry Veltmeyer, 2005-01-01 This text looks at globalization through the lens of Atlantic Canadians and their relationship with both the global economy and the country at large      Transforming Provincial Politics Bryan M. Evans, Charles W Smith, 2015-03-27 Over the past thirty five years Canada's provinces and territories have undergone significant political changes Abandoning mid century Keynesian policies governments of all political persuasions have turned to deregulation tax reduction and government downsizing as policy solutions for a wide range of social and economic issues Transforming Provincial Politics is the first province by province analysis of politics and political economy in more than a decade and the first to directly examine the turn to neoliberal policies at the provincial and territorial level Featuring chapters written by experts in the politics of each province and territory Transforming Provincial Politics examines how neoliberal policies have affected politics in each jurisdiction A comprehensive and accessible analysis of the issues involved this collection will be welcomed by scholars instructors and anyone interested in the state of provincial politics today      The Public Sector in an Age of Austerity Bryan M. Evans, Carlo Fanelli, 2018-07-23 Following the 2008 global financial crisis Canada appeared to escape the austerity implemented elsewhere but this was spin hiding the reality A closer look reveals that the provinces responsible for delivering essential public and social services such as education and healthcare shouldered the burden The Public Sector in an Age of Austerity examines public sector austerity in the provinces and territories specifically addressing how austerity was implemented what forms austerity agendas took from regressive taxes and new user fees to public sector layoffs and privatization schemes and what if any political responses resulted Contributors focus on the period from 2007 to 2015 the global financial crisis and the period of fiscal consolidation that followed while also providing a longer historical context austerity is not a new phenomenon A granular examination of each jurisdiction identifies how changing fiscal conditions have affected the delivery of public services and restructured public finances highlighting the consequences such changes have had for public sector workers and users of public services The first book of its kind in Canada The Public Sector in an Age of Austerity challenges conventional wisdom by showing that Canada did not escape post crisis austerity and that its recovery has been vastly overstated      Compendium of the Dominion, Canada's Grassroots National Newspaper, May 2003 - November 2004 H. Raymond Samuels, II, 2005      Equal as Citizens Richard Starr, 2014-04-30 No matter where they live Canadians expect and receive equal benefits from their government when it comes to old age pensions consular services when travelling abroad and airline safety Canadians also expect the same quality of education medical care and social benefits anywhere in the country But when government services come from provinces and not Ottawa differences in the quality of services can be enormous Canada's provinces have equal responsibilities but very unequal means to pay for those responsibilities Equal citizenship for all Canadians is an idea that has a long and distinguished pedigree in Canadian life When differences between the provinces grew dramatically in the early twentieth century politicians crafted a response that sought to equalize services across the country They called these measures equalization and the idea was deemed so fundamental that it was embodied in the 1982 Canadian constitution But Canada has changed The centre of wealth has been shifting from Ontario toward the resource rich provinces The wealth gap between provinces has grown and with it disparities in taxes and services available to citizens Regionalism and neoconservative ideas have undermined support for equal citizenship In this compelling new book Richard Starr traces the history of this idea He tracks how it has been undermined and attacked and proposes how it can be reframed in a twenty first century context to attract the support of most Canadians

Anne of Tim Hortons Herb Wyile, 2011-04-25 Anne of Tim Hortons Globalization and the Reshaping of Atlantic Canadian Literature is a study of the work of over twenty contemporary Atlantic Canadian writers that counters the widespread impression of Atlantic Canada as a quaint and backward place By examining their treatment of work culture and history author Herb Wyile highlights how these writers resist the image of Atlantic Canadians as improvident and regressive if charming folk After an introduction that examines the current place of the region within the Canadian federation and the broader context of economic globalization Anne of Tim Hortons explores how Atlantic Canadian writers present a picture of the region that is much more complex and less quaint than the stereotypes through which it is typically viewed Through the works of authors such as Michael Winter Lisa Moore George Elliott Clarke Rita Joe Frank Barry Alistair MacLeod and Bernice Morgan among others the book looks at the changing and increasingly corporate nature of work the cultural diversification and subversive self consciousness of Atlantic Canadian literature and Atlantic Canadian writers often revisionist approach to the region's history What these writers are engaged in the book contends is a kind of collective readjustment of the image of the region Rather than a marginal place stranded outside of time Atlantic Canada in these works is very much caught up in contemporary economic political and cultural developments particularly the broad sweep of economic globalization

The Failure of Global Capitalism Terry Gibbs, Garry M. Leech, 2009 What do Cape Breton and Colombia have in common Coal for one thing Coal mining was the backbone of Cape Breton's industrial economy for more than one hundred years but the last mine was closed in 2001 when the province's utility company took advantage of neoliberal globalization by importing coal from Colombia Colombia and Cape Breton represent the loss of well paid unionized industrial jobs as a result of neoliberal globalization the economic hegemony that allows multinational corporations in the global North primarily North America and Europe to exploit the natural resources and cheap labour of the global South Latin America Africa and Asia But the commonalities between Cape Breton and Colombia do not end with coal there are numerous connections directly related to the capitalist system militant labour struggles repression economic insecurity population displacement social inequality and environmental devastation The Failure of Global Capitalism uses the examples of Cape Breton and Colombia to illustrate the harsh realities suffered by people throughout the global North and the global South under neoliberal globalization particularly with regard to socio economic and environmental issues Ultimately it exposes the failure of industrial capitalism and looks toward more sustainable and egalitarian alternatives      Symposium ,2009
