Social Work On The Net:

Web-based Education in the Human Services Robert J. MacFadden, 2005 Web Based Education in the Human Services reflects the vitality and diversity of Web based courses currently delivered within human services Unlike previous texts that have combined technologies such as Interactive Television ITV and two way audio where Web involvement was minimal this unique book focuses on Web based models tools and techniques used in courses where the majority of the content is delivered online The book s contributors emphasize the social aspects of learning examining topical areas not usually associated with Web based education as they remind us of the need to move beyond the similarities between WBE and face to face FTF approaches

Human Services in the Network Society Neil Ballantyne, Walter La Mendola, 2014-07-16 The Internet and the many applications it supports continue to transform and expand the ways in which it is possible to relate communicate collaborate and perform human service work In this book human service researchers and practitioners explore major opportunities and challenges to well being social justice and human service work that technology use in everyday life has exposed Drawing on the latest research their contributions examine issues associated with human service practices in the network society including the implications of an expanded capacity to share human service data across agency and national boundaries ethical issues associated with the use of remote sensing and surveillance technologies e g the satellite tracking of offenders and telecare services for older people the risks and benefits of social network sites including issues associated with online privacy intimacy and safety and the influence of technology mediated services on human relationships and the sense of being present with another person Human Services in the Network Society will be of considerable interest to human service professionals academics and researchers who are concerned about the social impact of networked technologies This book was previously published as a special issue of the Journal of Technology in Human Services
