The Routledge International Handbook of Race, Culture and Mental Health Roy Moodley, Eunjung Lee, 2020-10-27 This handbook presents a thorough examination of the intricate interplay of race ethnicity and culture in mental health historical origins subsequent transformations and the discourses generated from past and present mental health and wellness practices The text demonstrates how socio cultural identities including race gender class sexual orientation disability religion and age intersect with clinical work in a range of settings Case vignettes and recommendations for best practice help ground each in a clinical focus guiding practitioners and educators to actively increase their understanding of non Western and indigenous healing techniques as well as their awareness of contemporary mental health theories as a product of Western culture with a particular historical and cultural perspective The international contributors also discuss ways in which global mental health practices transcend racial cultural ethnic linguistic and political boundaries The Routledge International Handbook of Race Culture and Mental Health is an essential resource for students researchers and professionals alike as it addresses the complexity of mental health issues from a critical global perspective The Routledge Handbook of Service User Involvement in Human Services Research and Education Hugh McLaughlin, Peter Beresford, Colin Cameron, Helen Casey, Joe Duffy, 2020-08-10 Worldwide there has been a growth in service user involvement in education and research in recent years This handbook is the first book which identifies what is happening in different regions of the world to provide different countries and client groups with the opportunity to learn from each other The book is divided into five sections Section One examines service user involvement in context exploring theoretical issues which underpin service user involvement In Section Two we focus on the state of service user involvement in human services education and research across the globe including examples of innovative practice but also identifying examples of where it is not happening and why Section Three offers more detailed examination of such involvement in a wide range of professional education learning settings Section

Four focuses on the involvement of service users in research involving a wide range of service user groups and situations. Lastly, Section Five explores future challenges for education and research to ensure involvement remains meaningful. The book includes forty-eight chapters, including seventeen case studies from all regions of the world. This is the first book to both highlight the subject's methodological and theoretical issues and give practical examples in education and research for those wishing to engage in this field. It will be of interest to all service users, scholars, and students of social work, nursing, occupational therapy, and other human service subjects.

Sustainable Ageing Nestor Asiamah, Hafiz T.A. Khan, Whitney Nesser, Frank Frimpong Opuni, Alex Siu Wing Chan, 2024-10-26. This book uniquely operationalizes sustainable ageing as a concept for reimagining ways by which 1) social and health threats (i.e. climate change events, extreme industrialization, infectious disease outbreak, and war) can constrain the implementation of healthy ageing campaigns or limit their outcomes, and 2) potential transdisciplinary strategies can be rolled out to optimize healthy ageing through the campaigns in contexts experiencing the threats. The United Nations Decade of Healthy Ageing 2021-2030 initiative drives major healthy ageing campaigns and encapsulates 10 initiatives for enabling people to maintain health as they age. Worsening social and health threats are, however, hindering the implementation of the campaigns. Consequently, healthy ageing may not be achieved or sustained even in age-friendly contexts experiencing crises. Scholars agree these threats will adversely impact public health, and an inclusive multidisciplinary approach to healthy ageing is necessary amidst the threats. This book provides an understanding of how healthy ageing should be framed and approached through the campaigns in a world experiencing crises. Among the topics covered are: Psychology of Ageing in Place, Amidst Health and Social Threats; Perspectives on the Decade of Healthy Ageing; Climate Change Adaptation for Healthy Ageing; Research Practice Gap Impact on Campaigns and Mitigation Strategies; Human Development Pathways for Empowering Older Adults; A Decade of Healthy Ageing Perspective; Initiatives to Fight Ageism, Neglect, and Elderly Abuse During Crises; A Healthy Ageing Perspective; Sustainable Ageing; Reimagining Healthy Ageing Through the Lens of Flagship Campaigns. This is a timely publication with broad appeal. Each chapter provides empirical evidence or models for improving stakeholders' understanding of campaign-related healthy ageing programmes, how the programmes are affected by the threats, and what can be done to achieve the core goals in contexts experiencing threats. Students, lecturers, and researchers can use the book as a research guide, whereas public health professionals and organizations can use it to develop or alter policies. Researchers in a wide range of disciplines can design studies based on models and insights from the book.
