In life's afternoon, and other stories by Curtis Yorke Curtis Yorke,Susan Richmond Lee,1903 Hope in Pastoral Care and Counseling Andrew D. Lester,1995-04-01 In this ground breaking book pastoral counselor Andrew Lester demonstrates that pastoral theology as well as social and behavioral sciences has neglected to address effectively the predominant cause of human suffering a lack of hope a sense of futurelessness Lester not only looks at the reasons why addressing the ideas of hope and despair has been overlooked by pastoral theology and other social and behavioral sciences He also offers a starting point for the development of addressing these important dimensions of human life He provides clinical theories and methods for pastoral assessment of and intervention with those who despair He also puts forth strategies for assessing the future stories of those who despair and offers a corrective to these stories through deconstruction reframing and reconstruction

Shadow Traffic Richard Burgin, 2011-10-15 A St Louis Post Dispatch Favorite Book of 2011 The New York Times Book Review has praised Richard Burgin's stories as eerily funny dexterous too haunting to be easily forgotten while the Philadelphia Inquirer calls him one of America's most distinctive storytellers no one of his generation reports the contemporary war between the sexes with more devastating wit and accuracy Now in Shadow Traffic his seventh collection of stories five time Pushcart Prize winner Richard Burgin gives us his most incisive witty and daring collection to date as he explores the mysteries of love and identity ambition and crime and our ceaseless if ambivalent quest for truth In Memorial Day an aging man at a public swimming pool recalls a brief but momentous affair he had with a young British woman in London thirty years ago and the paradoxical role his recently deceased father played in it In the highly suspenseful Memo and Oblivion set in the near future in New York two rival drug organizations engage in a dangerous battle for supremacy one promoting a pill that increases memory exponentially the other a pill that dramatically eliminates memory The Interview centers on a B movie starlet married to a much older and more famous director and her tragic yet comic interview with an ambitious but conflicted young reporter Shadow Traffic justifies the New York Times claim that Burgin offers characters of such variety that no generalizations about them can apply and why the Boston Globe concluded that Burgin's tales capture the strangeness of a world that is simultaneously frightening and reassuring and in the contemporary American short story nothing quite resembles his singular voice

The Lousy Adult William J. Catch, Release Adrienne Harun, 2018-11-01 The latest electrifying collection from acclaimed novelist and short story writer Adrienne Harun Grand Price Winner 2019 Eric Hoffer Book Award It's all about loss Don't kid yourself Even a simple game of catch is hinged on the moment the ball leaves the glove the moment it returns Don't even try to think this story or any other story is about something else In Catch

Release Adrienne Harun's second story collection loss is the driver. But it's less the usual somber shadow figure of grieving than an erratically interesting cousin unmoored even exhilarated by the sudden flight into emptiness the freedom of being neither here nor there. In this suspended state anything might happen and it does. Harun's most realistic stories are suffused with mystery while her more fantastic tales reveal startling truths within the commonplace. In diverse settings that include among other places a British Columbian island a haunted Midwestern farmhouse a London townhome and a dementia care facility overpopulated with dangerously idle guardian angels characters reconfigure whole worlds as they navigate states defined by absence. In The Farmhouse Wife a young couple struggling financially takes up residence in a near abandoned farmhouse only to be joined by an inconvenient roommate a woman whose own bereft state proves perilously seductive. A kleptomaniac father gets caught in one of his petty thefts in Pearl Diving propelling his two sons out of one life into another perhaps more appropriate one. In Madame Ida a family of little girls steadily invades a woman's life as she puzzles out the mysteries of a missing sheriff turned cult leader and the absence of her own son. And in the title story two teenagers face off against the hurtful lies of an ancient con woman who is mining a widow's grief for her own ends. Adrienne Harun has been described as an exacting and attentive stylist whose stories are rendered in vivid language. The Los Angeles Review of Books wrote of her work Harun finds beauty in pitch black she makes poetry out of brutality and grace out of terror. She is an alchemist turning the worst aspects of life into gold. With Catch Release Harun upends the world once more. The Empire of the Dead Tracy Daugherty, 2014. Searching for renewal in the face of unforeseeable tragedy and the daily changes wrought by time. In the spare and deliberate stories in The Empire of the Dead through situations both comic and bluntly melancholy the future remains open for people but at an indeterminate cost. Daily characters weigh their indecision against the consequences of choice. Through a series of five linked stories we meet Bern a New York City architect yearning for a return to first principles the initial euphoria the falling in love that led him to consider a life devoted to sheltering others. In his ministrations to colleagues and friends his memories of magical building feats now in the past he learns the limits and the expansiveness of joy and need. In another tale we meet a young painter in a Gulf Coast refinery town struggling to differentiate beauty from affliction. His sister's encounter with the singer Janis Joplin causes him to reconsider the nature of saintliness. And in the novella The Magnitudes a planetarium director grieving over the unexpected loss of his parents must learn how much of the universe both the real sky beyond his reach and the firmament cast upon the planetarium dome he can control. Like the other characters in Tracy Daugherty's masterful collection he moves through spaces at once sacred and spoiled within cities deserts and other strange environments reckoning taking soundings trying to find firm footing in the world.
