Story Of The Development Of Nwtna A New Concept In Payperview Programming:

The Story of the Development of NWATNA Jerry W. Jarrett, 2004 When the WWE bought WCW from Turner Time Warner they were basically the only professional wrestling company in the US Jerry and Jeff Jarrett knew the needed capital to begin a traditional wrestling company was beyond their resources the father and son team realized that a new concept would be necessary to accomplish the task of starting a national wrestling company Against great odds the largest time allotment contract with the pay per view providers InDemand and Direct TV was negotiated With the seed money 1 000 000 00 and a boat load of optimism the Jarrett s set out to form a start up International wrestling company After bankers promised loans and then withdrew at the last minute Health South came in as the financing partner in the venture Health South was forced to pull out without notice because of international problems and with a window of only 30 days a replacement for Health South was found when Panda Energy bought into the project The road was never an easy one From discovering that a key man who handled the PPV end of the business was on the payroll of the company that handles WWE PPV s at the same time to receiving forged documents from InDemand to wrestlers that had verbally committed to NWATNA suddenly getting attractive contracts with WWE the venture has survived Today two years after the launch this company that insiders gave no chance of survival has produced 90 weeks of pay per view programs and is seen around the world on international television NWATNA has secured a deal with a major television network Wrestling Observer Newsletter ,2004-07
