Story Dreamt Long Ago:

A Story Dreamt Long Ago Phyllis McDuff, 2003 Whispered voices in the hallways of her childhood A hastily packed suitcase A masked ball that ends early A mother who will not reveal her past A daughter's search for the truth When Bettina Mendl arrived in Australia in 1939 from Vienna she was on the run In her homeland of Austria she was wanted by Hitler's SS and in Australia she was an enemy alien Fearing internment she had to become invisible so she literally went bush to the red dust of the Australian outback There Bettina met and fell in love with Joe McDuff station manager and salt of the earth bushman After Joe rescued Bettina from certain death from a spider bite and exposure romance bloomed and they settled into a loving marriage and life in the bush Their two young daughters Phyllis and Dawn grew up completely unspoiled and blissfully aware of their mother's aristocratic past When the Second World War finally came to an end Bettina was called back to Austria to try to reclaim what remained of her vast estate and family lands While Bettina and Joe had a wonderful life they wanted to secure their daughters' futures Unable to bear an extended separation from her family Bettina packed up Joe and the girls and took them to Austria for the first time Thus began a fairytale whirlwind of exotic travel beautiful clothes mansions and five star hotels glamorous parties famous faces and luxury for the McDuffs especially for Phyllis and Dawn who were used to going barefoot and had no awareness of the extent of their mother's vast family fortune Bettina's life before the war had always been a mystery to her children and she refused to talk about it as they grew up But as her life drew to a close her eldest daughter Phyllis began a quest to uncover the truth From the unravelling of a secret coded message to a connection with Picasso and a British spy A Story Dreamt Long Ago follows Phyllis's astonishing journey of discovery a journey which revealed Bettina's hidden past and her untold courage A Story Dreamt Long Ago Phyllis McDuff, 2010
