From Sea to Shining Sea the Story of America Teacher's Edition , City of Dispossessions Kyle T. Mays,2022-05-24 In July 2013 Detroit became the largest city in U S history to declare bankruptcy The underlying causes were decades of deindustrialization white flight and financial mismanagement More recently it has been heralded a comeback city as wealthy white residents resettle there Yet as Kyle T Mays argues we cannot understand the current state of Detroit without also understanding the longer history of Native American and African American dispossession that has defined the city since its founding How has dispossession impacted the development of modern U S cities And how does comparing the historical experiences of Native Americans and African Americans in an urban context help us comprehend histories of race sovereignty and colonialism Using archives oral and family histories and community documents City of Dispossessions is a cultural intellectual and social history that argues that physical and symbolic forms of dispossession of Native Americans and African Americans and their reactions to dispossession have been central to Detroit s modern development The book begins with the first settlement by the Frenchman Cadillac in 1701 and chronicles how the logic of dispossession has continued into the present through a wide range of forms that include memorialization of the disappearing Indian the physical dispossession of African Americans through urban renewal and gentrification Mays also chronicles the wide ranging forms of expression through which Black and Indigenous Detroiters have contested dispossession such as the Red and Black Power movements and culturally relevant education Through lively accessible prose as well as historical and contemporary examples City of Dispossessions will be of interest to readers of urban studies Indigenous Studies and critical ethnic studies Teaching American History in the Middle Grades of the Elementary School Mary Gertrude Kelty, 1928 Colonial American History Stories - 1763 - 1769 Paul R. Wanning, Colonial American History Stories 1763 1769 contains almost 300 history stories presented in a timeline that begins in 1755 with the hanging of the Liberty Bell and ends with the Treaty of Paris that ended the French and Indian War This journal of historical events mark the beginnings of the United States and serve as a wonderful guide of American history These reader friendly stories include March 10 1753 Liberty Bell Hung April 9 1754 Slave Girl Priscilla Begins Her Horrible Journey April 12 1755 Ben Franklin Receives Letter Describing Death by Tapeworm November 01 1756 Samuel Adams Elected Tax Collector June 28 1762 First Reported Counterfeiting Attempt at Boston timeline journal events stories united states beginnings guide little known obscure facts forgotten stories
