Story Within:

The Story Within Us Megan Sweeney, 2012-09-11 This volume features in depth oral interviews with eleven incarcerated women each of whom offers a narrative of her life and her reading experiences within prison walls The women share powerful stories about their complex and diverse efforts to negotiate difficult relationships exercise agency in restrictive circumstances and find meaning and beauty in the midst of pain Their shared emphases on abuse poverty addiction and mental illness illuminate the pathways that lead many women to prison and suggest possibilities for addressing the profound social problems that fuel crime Framing the narratives within an analytic introduction and reflective afterword Megan Sweeney highlights the crucial intellectual work that the incarcerated women perform despite myriad restrictions on reading and education in U S prisons These women use the limited reading materials available to them as sources of guidance and support and as tools for self reflection and self education Through their creative engagements with books the women learn to reframe their own life stories situate their experiences in relation to broader social patterns deepen their understanding of others experiment with new ways of being and maintain a sense of connection with their fellow citizens on both sides of the prison fence

The Lazarus Story Within the Johannine Tradition Wendy Sproston North, 2001-05-01 This historical critical study of the Gospel of John and the First Epistle of John challenges the commonly held view that the first Johannine epistle is related to the Gospel Sproston argues that the two writings are indirectly related through a common Johannine tradition A comparison of the two therefore allows traditional material in the evangelist's work to be isolated enhancing our understanding of the creative processes involved in its composition The account of the raising of Lazarus is rigorously analysed as a test case for this kind of analysis

The Story Within a Story in Biblical Hebrew Narrative David A. Bosworth, 2023-09-28 This book is a revision of a dissertation that studies three texts Genesis 38 1 Samuel 25 and 1 Kings 13 11 32 Kings 12 15 20 in which the author finds examples of the literary device mise en abyme placement of the abyss

The Story Within Laura Oliver, M.F.A., 2011-11-01 Laura Oliver has been teaching aspiring writers how to plumb emotional contradictions for insight for more than a decade in workshops and university classes Now she has written the book her students have been asking her for a book that aspiring writers of every genre can use to guide coach and encourage them on their journey The Story Within employs the compelling art of memoir to illuminate craft and touches on nuanced subjects only a teacher who is herself actively writing knows to address Each chapter offers excerpts from Laura's own stories as well as those of students and published authors and then provides fresh advice and clear instruction on the subject of writing

The South African Short

Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies Edinburgh Companion to the Short Story in English Paul Delaney, 2018-02-01 Provides a clear introduction to the key terms and frameworks in cognitive poetics and stylistics

Irenaeus of Sirmium and His Story in the Medieval East and West Marijana Vuković, 2023-12-01 The study of hagiographies has generally been focused on the more prominent saints of late antiquity and the Middle Ages who inspired significant and long lasting veneration However this has caused many less well known saints to be pushed aside and forgotten This book is a study into one such saint Irenaeus a martyr who was killed in 304 CE in Sirmium Pannonia His short lived cult his feast day and the account of his martyrdom which had been translated into Latin Greek Old Slavonic Georgian and Armenian had all been forgotten during the Middle Ages This book examines Irenaeus of Sirmium s life cult sainthood and eventual disappearance from the memory of medieval Christendom in the context of a wider study on the memory of those less well known saints who like Irenaeus became neglected and eventually forgotten Irenaeus of Sirmium and His Story in the Medieval East and West will be of interest to scholars and students alike interested in hagiography medieval literature and history as well as all those interested in the religious history of Byzantium medieval Europe and the Slavic world

Word and Story in C. S. Lewis Peter J. Schakel, Charles A. Huttar, 2008-04-14 Word and Story has broken new ground by enlisting well known scholars in the examination of Lewis s ideas about language and narrative both as stated in theory and as exemplified in practice Never before has such clear significant and thorough work in these areas been brought together in one place This compilation of sixteen essays demonstrates how an awareness of Lewis s ideas about language and narrative is essential to a full understanding and appreciation of his thought and works The contributors examine Lewis s poetry The
