Strange New Word Of The Gospel Re Evangelizing In The Postmodern World:

The Strange New Word of the Gospel Carl E. Braaten, Robert W. Jenson, 2002 In today's postmodern culture many people are turning to religion but they are not necessarily finding their way back to the church Most unbelievers in America and other Western countries are post Christians Though baptized and brought up in a church they no longer believe and practice the Christian faith In such a time the great challenge facing the church is re evangelization This volume provides serious theological reflection on Christian missions within postmodern post Christian culture Written by respected scholars representing the Catholic Protestant and Orthodox traditions these chapters point out elements of the gospel that will help the church speak effectively to contemporary society particularly in the United States John Milbank examines the origins of postmodernity and suggests that belief in the incarnation will be accepted only when the church fully embraces hetero sexuality Robert W Jenson insists that the church must boldly uphold its distinctive beliefs in an otherwise pluralistic and relativistic age David L Schindler argues that our reductionist view of nature must be replaced with one that again sees God s presence in the world R R Reno compares postmodernism s negation of truth claims to the weightless humanism of the Roman writer Petronius Philip Turner maintains that Christians can effectively persuade others today only through their actions Anthony Ugolnik believes that the gospel must now be de familiarized in order to make it fresh once more Todd E Johnson traces the history of evangelism in America and locates a valid model for our time Frank C Sennguestions the rise of the seeker service defending instead a traditional liturgy that emphasizes the Trinity Carl E Braaten works to recover the full power of the church's missionary calling Suggesting startling approaches to Christian proclamation this volume shows how the strange new word of the gospel can reawaken faith in the postmodern world Sacred Rhetoric Michael Pasquarello III,2012-06-01 Modern approaches to preaching today are largely fixated on how to s how to make preaching more relevant more interesting more entertaining Michael Pasquarello suggests that this fixation may stem from a preaching imagination more beholden to technical scientific reason than theological wisdom Rather than devising new techniques or strategies for effective speaking Pasquarello offers something more salutary portraits of ten exemplary preachers from the Christian tradition Included in Pasquarello's gallery are Augustine of Hippo Gregory the Great Benedict Bernard of Clairvaux Bonaventure Thomas Aguinas Erasmus Hugh Latimer Martin Luther and John Calvin These excellent preachers conceived of Christian speech as a unique theological practice learned through prayerful attention to the Bible and aimed at communion with God Sacred Rhetoric invites readers to join an extended conversation with the past in order to become faithful preachers of the gospel in a post Christian society Preachers seminarians and students of Christian history will find much to learn from Pasquarello's fresh perspective and passion for the past Text and Task Michael Parsons, 2012-06-12 Practical scriptural and contemporary Text and Task is a series of essays on Scripture and mission It aims to show the significance of reading the biblical text appropriately and with faithful engagement for our theology and missiology A team of biblical scholars suggests ways forward in areas such as the implicit missional narrative of David and Goliath the story of Solomon and his Temple building the genre of lament the explicit gracious message of the prophet Isaiah Paul s understanding of divine call and gospel and the place of mission as a hermeneutic for reading the Bible Theological chapters engage the issues of the Trinity and the unevangelized the missional dimensions of Barth's view of election the gospel's loss of plausibility in the modern West the place of preaching in mission and the idea of belonging to a church community before one believes the gospel Drawing together scholars from the fields of biblical studies theology sociology and homiletics Text and Task relates critically engaged textual reading to contemporary ongoing Christian life thought and mission The Freedom of God James Daryn Henry, 2018-05-30 The Freedom of God wrangles with the unfolding legacy of Christian theologian Robert Jenson and presents the first in depth study of his teaching on the Holy Spirit It is a specialist monograph that will entice those with interest in academic theology systematics and twentieth and twenty first century Christian thought especially the post Barthian historicist electionism and the post Rahnerian immanent and economic trinitarian project conversations Devoted readers of the works of Robert Jenson scholars of pneumatology third article theology or pentecostal renewal movements practitioners of liberation theology and supporters of ecumenical theology will all be particularly gripped by the analysis developed in this work As a text the Freedom of God could find a home in graduate seminary classrooms and in classes for advanced undergraduates for those studying Jenson as a way into systematic theology and contemporary Christian thought or in any thematic doctrinal courses on the Holy Spirit or the Trinity The Evangelizing Church Richard H. Bliese, Craig Van Gelder, The Evangelizing Church moves from theory to practice as it relates the theology of evangelism to the life of congregations that are seeking to proclaim the gospel in the emerging postmodern context It provides congregations with perspectives on how to utilize this theology in shaping the practice of evangelism within their church life

Contextual Theology Paul Duane Matheny, 2012-07-26 For centuries the global understanding of Church has been shaped by Western theological imperatives Yet today the decline of institutional religion in the West and the extraordinary growth of the Church of the global South mean that a radical movement beyond such theologies is required Paul Matheny argues that the Church would benefit by becoming more contextualized and less Western Contextual Theology is an attempt to address that issue and to examine how a reassessment of the relationship of the Gospel to cultural context can advance this critical and necessary development Through an accessible and critical approach Matheny considers the historical background to contextual theology In the same way he aims to show how to use contextual methodsto think theologically and act missiologically in different cultural contexts

Protestant Spiritual Traditions, Volume Two Frank C. Senn, 2020-07-24

There is no single Protestant spirituality but rather Protestant spiritual traditions usually embedded in denominational families that share some basic Protestant principles These two volumes of Protestant Spiritual Traditions offer essays on twelve traditions written by scholars within those traditions plus a concluding essay that gathers a number of Protestant contributions to Christian spirituality and Western culture under the category of the body These thirteen essays discuss the contributions of significant spiritual figures from Martin Luther to Martin Luther King Jr and offer insights on a range of topics from the theology of the cross to physical fitness Iohn Wesley Michael Pasquarello, 2010 An analysis and appreciation of the significance of John Wesley's life and theology as seen in his preaching A Theology in Outline Robert W. Jenson, 2016 In 2008 Robert Jenson delivered his last set of lectures Can These Bones Live An Introduction to Christian Theology at Princeton University Adam Eitel Jenson's teaching assistant at the time recorded and transcribed the twenty three lectures in the series compiling them into this book A Theology in Outline gives an overview of Christian theology as well as an introduction to Jenson's thought Saving Women Laceye C. Warner, 2007 Saving Women is a much needed study of women's contributions to the theology of evangelism Through a careful consideration of the primary sources of six Protestant women ministering in America from 1800 1950 this historical and theological study demonstrates that these women combined verbal proclamation with other historic Christian practices in their roles as preacher visitor missionary educator activist and reformer Great Commission, Great Confusion, or Great Confession? Lucas V. Woodford, 2012-04-26 There is a great debate going on in the church today It centers on one question What is the mission of the church From culturally relevant emerging congregations to strategic methods of organization and outreach many claim they have the answer They say the mission must become missional Yet the churches of North America continue to struggle Uncertainty is growing What does it really mean to be missional Competing claims abound Get the message out Get the message right Great confusion has set in particularly in the postmodern North American church The Gospel is getting lost Yet throughout the ages the creedal confession of the Holy Christian Church has carried her through uncertainty and struggle The Apostles Creed has steadied and stayed the mission of the church for centuries It centers on the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the work of the Holy Spirit the communion of saints the forgiveness of sins the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting This book celebrates the historic mission of the Holy Christian Church and it invites the North American church to do the same The God of Covenant and Creation Larry S. Chapp, 2013-05-01 According to Larry Chapp theology is left with two dire options in the aftermath of naturalism's apparent cultural triumph provide modernity with an intellectually cogent theological vision or perish along with that same culture in the wasteland of our nihilism Chapp's important book is grounds for hope that theology may live to see another day and that the pervasive nihilism may not have the last word He correctly diagnoses the intellectual and cultural dangers posed by so called scientific naturalism lifting the lid on its alleged metaphysical neutrality and exposing this naturalism for what it fundamentally is a bad theology which doesn t know itself And more importantly still he restores theology to its proper cosmological scope Not only does creation become intellectually compelling in Chapp's deft hands it elicits wonder and praise for its Creator and restores what is human in us This is a hopeful development indeed and a sign of an indispensible book Michael Hanby on back cover Because of Christ Carl E. Braaten, 2018-10-11 Carl

Braaten's memoirs tell the story of his life as a theologian from his early years as a missionary kid in Madagascar to his years of study at the universities of Paris Harvard Heidelberg and Oxford to his decades of teaching Throughout the book he delves into the many theological movements controversies and personalities that shaped his thinking and writing Braaten's fight for the faith is reflected in his theological work spoken and written that tangles with the isms of the surrounding culture of American religion Because of Christ is more than simply a biography it is a chronicle of the chief theological conflicts of the twentieth century that put the integrity of the gospel to the test A New Vision, a New Heart, a Renewed Call David Claydon, 2005 Union with God Audy Santoso, 2021-08-09 If salvation makes a person to become God then how do we understand the word God Audy Santoso assesses Robert Jenson's notion of deification on three main areas the concept of God Christ and self along with their ramifications In this comparative study Jenson's revisionary metaphysics in his theology opens up an insightful perspective in reading John Calvin's theology Discussion on the Supper shows the intricate relation of what these theologians hope for with the practice of our lives in God The author makes a comparative assessment and integration between the seemingly opposite metaphysics of Jenson and Calvin while keeping the Creator creature distinction of Reformed theology intact Jenson says that the end is music but the author affirms a better way without negating Jenson's

The Bible and Lay People Andrew Village, 2016-03-23 There are many books about how people ought to interpret the Bible This book is about how people in churches actually interpret the Bible and why they interpret it in the way that they do Based on a study of Anglicans in the Church of England it explores the interaction of belief personality experience and context and sheds new light on the way that texts interact with readers The author shows how the results of such study can begin to shape an empirically based theology of scripture This unique study approaches reader centred criticism and the theology of scripture from a completely new angle and will be of interest to both scholars and those who use the Bible in churches Pro Ecclesia .2002 The House Where God Lives Gary D. Badcock, 2009-09-15 In a culture dominated by the individualistic values of political and social liberalism Gary Badcock says that we seldom hear of the church as the creature of the Word of God The church has been entrusted to us by God and belongs to the structure of the Christian faith itself Ecclesiology is first of all theology because it is primarily about the presence of God Badcock maintains and is thus biblical and creedal one holy catholic and apostolic something that we believe which is what undergirds its empirical sociological and even pastoral function Rather than a hollow shell where humans dream moral dreams and do good deeds the church is the house where God lives Dangerous Blessing Carmen DiCello, 2005-06-21 Postmodernism has been both heralded and hated accepted and denounced But which is the proper response Is it an impetus to spiritual revival or an invitation to sinister deception Carmen C DiCello points out that Christians must examine everything carefully hold fast to that which is good 1 Thessalonians 5 21 while remaining alert to potential hazards Steering clear of extremes this book offers an approach to postmodernism in which believers can justly resist its darker elements while embracing its more noble ones

Postmodernism is best seen as a Dangerous Blessing Tensions in Christian Ethics Malcolm Brown,2011-01-01 The book draws on the author's teaching of ethics at undergraduate and postgraduate level for the Cambridge Theological Federation since 2000 Its purpose is to introduce the reader to questions in Christian ethics through a careful examination of the fundamental meta ethical questions posed by the state we're in whether understood as a new phase of modernity or as postmodernity Brown draws on sources and authors from a variety of Christian traditions and from Britain the U S A and Europe The book will be of use not only to university departments and denominational and ecumenical teaching institutions but also as a more general exposition of the current state of ethical thinking in the Christian churches
