Strangers South:

All Those Strangers Douglas Field, 2015-06-02 Adored by many appalling to some baffling still to others few authors defy any single critical narrative to the confounding extent that James Baldwin manages Was he a black or queer writer Was he a religious or secular writer Was he a spokesman for the civil rights movement or a champion of the individual His critics as disparate as his readership endlessly wrestle with paradoxes not just in his work but also in the life of a man who described himself as all those strangers called Jimmy Baldwin and who declared that all theories are suspect Viewing Baldwin through a cultural historical lens alongside a more traditional literary critical approach All Those Strangers examines how his fiction and nonfiction shaped and responded to key political and cultural developments in the United States from the 1940s to the 1980s Showing how external forces molded Baldwin's personal political and psychological development Douglas Field breaks through the established critical difficulties caused by Baldwin's geographical ideological and artistic multiplicity by analyzing his life and work against the radically transformative politics of his time The book explores under researched areas in Baldwin's life and work including his relationship to the Left his FBI files and the significance of Africa in his writing while also contributing to wider discussions about postwar US culture Field deftly navigates key twentieth century themes the Cold War African American literary history conflicts between spirituality and organized religion and transnationalism to bring a number of isolated subjects into dialogue with each other By exploring the paradoxes in Baldwin's development as a writer rather than trying to fix his life and work into a single framework All Those Strangers contradicts the accepted critical paradigm that Baldwin's life and work are too ambiguous to make sense of By studying him as an individual and an artist in flux Field reveals the manifold ways in which Baldwin's work develops and coheres

Stranger Intimacy Nayan Shah, 2012-01-09 In exploring an array of intimacies between global migrants Nayan Shah illuminates a stunning transient world of heterogeneous social relations dignified collaborative and illicit At the same time he demonstrates how the United States and Canada in collusion with each other actively sought to exclude and dispossess nonwhite races Stranger Intimacy reveals the intersections between capitalism the state's treatment of immigrants sexual citizenship and racism in the first half of the twentieth century

Strangers in African Societies William A. Shack, Elliott P. Skinner, 1979-01-01

Walking Away from the Land Jonathan Stewart, 2014-06-28 Walking Away from the Land focuses on the rapid cultural and climatic changes occurring at the crest of the North American continent They are challenging the survival of our forests grasslands native wildlife and our very civilization This book details a three summer Odyssey hiking the length of the Continental Divide Trail from the Canadian Rockies to the Mexican border It focuses on the region's cultural and natural history while using the author's personal history as a Peace Corps volunteer in Nepal and as an Oregon forester to underline the dangers we face as an increasingly urbanized society Entanglement

Sarah Nuttall,2009-08-01 This original book is a much needed and far reaching exploration of post apartheid South African life worlds Entanglement aims to capture the contradictory mixture of innovation and inertia of loss violence and xenophobia as well as experimentation and desegregation which characterises the present The author explores the concept of entanglement in relation to readings of literature new media forms and painting In the process she moves away from a persistent apartheid optic drawing on ideas of sameness and difference and their limits in order to elicit ways of living and imagining that are just starting to take shape and for which we might not yet have a name In the background of her investigations lies a preoccupation with a future oriented politics one that builds on largely unexplored terrains of mutuality while being attentive to a historical experience of confrontation and injury The Stranger in Baltimore ,1866

Transcultural Realities Virginia H. Milhouse,Molefi Kete Asante,Peter O. Nwosu,2001-07-24 This text challenges the quantitative social science perspective on intercultural communication by examining critical issues from diverse perspectives Key topics include historical and religious perspectives racial and ethnic issues cross cultural adaptation and methods of researching other cultures The book takes a more criticaltural worldview of intercultural communication includes some of the major thinkers of the contemporary times including Molefi Kete Asante Ama Mazama Anthony Monteiro and Ali Mazrui is constructed so that professors and students of any cultural group might use it Stranger in a Stranger Land: My Six Years in Korea Brian M. Williams,2015-11-24 At his most immodest Brian would like to believe Bill Bryson would be able to recognize his influence on this book It s a humorous informative and thoughtful exploration of modern Korean culture and expat life The book is full of personal anecdotes secondhand stories and interesting facts which are all interlaced with his personal narrative Brian discusses serious topics like Korea s deeply embedded racism its 1950 s style sexism its demanding but unproductive work culture and its highly lauded but deeply flawed education system He also talks about lighter subjects like K pop the expat and Korean dating scenes its debaucherous drinking culture and why he thinks Seoul should be considered the party capital of Asia By time readers are done they ll have an understanding of how a lot of expats view Korea what some of its most significant and peculiar cultural differences are and some of the problems it s currently facing This is a must read for anyone thinking of moving there Geography on the Productive System Roswell Chamberlain Smith,1839

West Indies Pilot United States. Hydrographic Office,1922 Transnational Feminist Perspectives on Terror in Literature and Culture Basuli Deb,2014-11-13 This book offers a transnational feminist response to the gender politics of torture and terror from the viewpoint of populations of color who have come to be associated with acts of terror Using the War on Terror in Afghanistan and Iraq this book revisits other such racialized wars in Palestine Guatemala India Algeria and South Africa It draws widely on postcolonial literature photography films music interdisciplinary arts media new media and activism joining the larger conversation about human rights by addressing the problem of a pervasive public misunderstanding of terrorism conditioned by a foreign and domestic policy perspective Deb provides an alternative understanding of terrorism as revolutionary dissent against injustice through a postcolonial transnational lens The volume brings counter terror narratives into dialogue with ideologies of gender race ethnicity nationality class and religion addressing the situation of women as both perpetrators and targets of torture and the possibilities of a dialogue between feminist and queer politics to confront securitized regimes of torture This book explores the relationship in which social and cultural texts stand with respect to legacies of colonialism and neo imperialism in a world of transnational feminist solidarities against postcolonial wars on terror
