Anthony Blair, 2011-10-20 J Anthony Blair is a prominent international figure in argumentation studies He is among the originators of informal logic an author of textbooks on the informal logic approach to argument analysis and evaluation and on critical thinking and a founder and editor of the journal Informal Logic Blair is widely recognized among the leaders in the field for contributing formative ideas to the argumentation literature of the last few decades This selection of key works provides insights into the history of the field of argumentation theory and various related disciplines It illuminates the central debates and presents core ideas in four main areas Critical Thinking Informal Logic Argument Theory and Logic Dialectic and Rhetoric

From Argument Schemes to Argumentative Relations in the Wild Frans H. van Eemeren, Bart Garssen, 2019-10-23 This volume comprises a selection of contributions to the theorizing about argumentation that have been presented at the 9th conference of the International Society for the Study of Argumentation ISSA held in Amsterdam in July 2018 The chapters included provide a general theoretical perspective on central topics in argumentation theory such as argument schemes and the fallacies Some contributions concentrate on the treatment of the concept of conductive argument Other contributions are dedicated to specific issues such as the justification of questions the occurrence of mining relations the role of exclamation marks argumentative abduction eudaimonistic argumentation and a typology of logical ways to counter an argument In a number of cases the theoretical problems addressed are related to a specific type of context such as the burden of proof in philosophical argumentation the charge of committing a genetic fallacy in strategic manoeuvring in philosophy the necessity of community argument and connection adequacy for arguments with institutional warrants The volume offers a great deal of diversity in its breadth of coverage of argumentation theory and wide geographic representation from North and South America to Europe and China

How Philosophers Argue Fernando Leal, Hubert Marraud, 2022-02-21 This volume presents a double argumentative analysis of the debate between Bertrand Russell and Frederick Copleston on the existence of God It includes an introduction justifying the choice of text and describing the historical and philosophical background of the debate It also provides a transcript of the debate based in part on the original recording The argumentative analyses occupy Parts I and II of the book In Part I the argumentative process is analysed by means of the ideal model of critical discussion the workhorse of pragma dialectics Part I shows how the two parties go through the four stages of a critical discussion It highlights the questions raised over and beyond the presiding question of whether God exists and examines almost a hundred questions that are raised Many are left in the air whereas a few others give rise to sundry sub discussions or meta dialogues In Part II the theoretical framework of argument dialectic is put to work argument structures are identified by means of punctuation marks argumentative connectors and operators allowing to see the argumentative exchange as the collaborative construction of a macro argument Such a macro argument is both a joint product of the arguers and a complex structure representing the dialectical relationships between the individual arguments combined in it Finally the complementarity of the two approaches is addressed Thus the book can be described as an exercise in adversarial collaboration L'Analisi Linguistica e Letteraria 2015-1 AA.VV.,2015-07-10 L Analisi
