

The background of the book cover is a classical landscape painting. It depicts two figures, a man and a woman, standing on a rocky outcrop or cliff. The man is on the left, wearing a light-colored suit and a hat, looking towards the woman. The woman is on the right, wearing a red dress and a hat, looking back at the man. They are surrounded by dense, dark foliage and trees. In the background, there are misty, rolling hills and a body of water. The overall tone is somber and atmospheric.

Bik,2008-11-24 The Hebrew Bible is arguably the most influential work of all time the most prized and most studied literary possession of Western civilization Yet its message remains enigmatic obscured by the cryptic nature of its archaic vocabulary Using the Ten Commandments as an illustrative portal Hilton Bik explains how the West fundamentally misunderstands the Holy Word emanating from the East Drawing upon an illustrious array of contemporary scholarship he demonstrates how traditional biblical commentary is chronically jeopardized by entrenched presuppositions that preclude an accurate interpretation of the exotic narrative This unbiased historically based analysis of the ancient manuscript yields some startling discoveries insights that test the very foundational ideas of both Judaism and Christianity and question the commonly accepted nexus between the Decalogue and civil society Magika Hiera Christopher A. Faraone,Dirk Obbink,1997-02-13 This collection challenges the tendency among scholars of ancient Greece to see magical and religious ritual as mutually exclusive and to ignore magical practices in Greek religion The contributors survey specific bodies of archaeological epigraphical and papyrological evidence for magical practices in the Greek world and in each case determine whether the traditional dichotomy between magic and religion helps in any way to conceptualize the objective features of the evidence examined Contributors include Christopher A Faraone J H M Strubbe H S Versnel Roy Kotansky John Scarborough Samuel Eitrem Fritz Graf John J Winkler Hans Dieter Betz and C R Phillips The Nature and Origin of the Cult of Silvanus in the Roman Provinces of Dalmatia and Pannonia Ljubica Perinić,2017-02-06 The Nature and Origin of the Cult of Silvanus in the Roman Provinces of Dalmatia and Pannonia deals with the cult of Silvanus and presents the evidence and current state of research of the cult in Dalmatia and Pannonia to the wider scholarly community Cunningham's Encyclopedia of Magical Herbs Scott Cunningham,2012-04-08 Expanded and revised this comprehensive guide features magical uses of over 400 herbs and plants from all parts of the world With over 500 000 copies in print this reference book is a must for all who perform natural magic It features illustrations for easy identification of every herb in addition to common names use and rulership Theory of Collective Behaviour Neil J. Smelser,2013-10-15 This is Volume XVII of eighteen of a series on the Sociology of Behaviour and Psychology First published in 1962 this study offers a theoretical synthesis of collective behavior Martyrdom, Murder, and Magic Patricia Healy Wasyliw, 2008 Martyrdom Murder and Magic Child Saints and Their Cults in Medieval Europe is a comprehensive history of child saints and their cults from late Antiquity to the end of the fifteenth century The child martyrs of the persecutions including the Holy Innocents were the first child saints recognized by the Church and their cults spread throughout Europe in the early Middle Ages Alongside these cults medieval society also venerated child martyrs victims of political or domestic violence The increasing role of the papacy in the canonization process after the tenth century resulted in the veneration of saintly child confessors in the high Middle Ages but from the end of the twelfth century most children worshipped as saints were the alleged victims of ritual murder by Jews This book considers the formation and transformation of child saints and their cults in the context of popular belief and the history of childhood Rethinking Greek Religion Julia

Kindt, 2012-08-02 Who marched in religious processions and why How were blood sacrifice and communal feasting related to identities in the ancient Greek city With questions such as these current scholarship aims to demonstrate the ways in which religion maps on to the socio political structures of the Greek polis polis religion In this book Dr Kindt explores a more comprehensive conception of ancient Greek religion beyond this traditional paradigm Comparative in method and outlook the book invites its readers to embark on an interdisciplinary journey touching upon such diverse topics as religious belief personal religion magic and theology Specific examples include the transformation of tyrant property into ritual objects the cultural practice of setting up dedications at Olympia and a man attempting to make love to Praxiteles famous statue of Aphrodite The book will be valuable for all students and scholars seeking to understand the complex phenomenon of ancient Greek religion
