Taiwans Modernization:

Taiwan's Modernization: Americanization And Modernizing Confucian Manifestations Wei-bin Zhang, 2003-07-14

This book is part of a broad examination of Confucianism and its implications for modernization of the Confucian regions covering mainland China Taiwan Hong Kong Macau Vietnam Japan South Korea North Korea and Singapore It is mainly concerned with the industrialization and modernization of Taiwan To help readers understand the process of modernization the book provides an introduction to the history of Taiwan and to Confucianism and its modern implications As far as social and economic principles are concerned Taiwan s modernization is according to the author characterized by Americanization and modernizing Confucian manifestations The book demonstrates that Taiwan has actually provided an important case study not only for the capitalist spirit of overseas Chinese but also for possible implications of Confucianism for modernization The unique character of this book is that in explaining Taiwan s modernization it deals not only with economic and social issues but also examines the philosophical foundations an endeavor which no other author has systematically made before

Taiwan's Modernization in Global Perspective Peter C. Chow, 2002-10-30 In five decades Taiwan has shifted from an authoritarian regime to a multi party democracy has moved steadily toward modernization and has become an economically affluent socially pluralistic society Its experience provides valuable lessons for developing countries This book offers a critical assessment of Taiwan s path to modernization focusing particularly on developments of constitutional democracy and the rule of law democratic transition and consolidation internationalization and globalization and social developments From its market economy to its democratization Taiwan provides a valuable case study On social developments it provides a unique model of demographic transition rising women s social status and the emergence of the nuclear family In eighteen chapters written by prominent scholars this book examines the multiple aspects of Taiwan s modernization in a global perspective

Taiwan Cinema, Memory, and Modernity Ivy I-chu Chang, 2019-01-04 This book investigates the aesthetics and politics of Post Taiwan New Cinema by examining fifteen movies

by six directors and frequent award winners in international film festivals The book considers the works of such prominent directors as Edward Yang Tsai Ming liang and Chang Tsuo chi and their influence on Asian films as well as emergent phenomenal directors such as Wei Te sheng Zero Chou and Chung Mong hong It also explores the possibility of transnational and trans local social sphere in the interstices of layered colonial legacies nation state domination and global capitalism Considering Taiwan cinema in the wake of globalization it analyses how these films represent the socio political transition among multiple colonial legacies global capitalism and the changing cross strait relation between Taiwan and the Mainland China The book discusses how these films represent nomadic urban middle class displaced transnational migrant workers roaming children and young gangsters and explores how the continuity disjuncture of globalization has not only carved into historical and personal memories and individual bodies but also influenced the transnational production modes and marketing strategies of cinema

Cultural Change In Postwar Taiwan Stevan Harrell, 2019-03-13 With its increasing wealth a growing and better educated urban population and one of the world's largest trade surpluses Taiwan has shed its identity as an impoverished war torn nation and joined the ranks of developed countries Yet despite the attention focused on the country's profound transformation surprisingly little information exists

Broken Narratives, 2014-08-07 The end of the Cold War reshuffled the power relations between former friends and enemies In Broken Narratives the contributors offer an account of the consequences of the end of the Cold War for the re telling of history in film literature and academic historiography in Europe and East Asia Despite the post modern claim that there is no need for a master narrative the contributions to this book show that we are in the middle of an intense and difficult search for a common understanding of the past However instead of common narratives polyphony and dissonances are produced which reflect a world in a period of transition As the contributions to this volume show the year 1989 has generated broken narratives Contributors include Peter Verstraten Rotem Kowner Susanne Weigelin Schwiedrzik Carsten Sch fer Martin Gieselmann Yonson Ahn Chang Lung chih Andrea Riemenschnitter Shingo Minamizuka Petra Buchholz and Tatiana Zhurzhenko

Military Modernization in an Era of Uncertainty National Bureau of Asian Research (U.S.), 2005 Focuses on the defense capabilities of key Asian powers in the context of their grand strategies Through a combination of country regional and topical studies the book assesses how Asian states are modernizing their military programs in response to China's rise as a regional power the war on terrorism changes in U S force posture the revolution in military affairs and local security dilemmas In addition to this central theme each chapter examines the changing balance of power in Asia and identifies likely threats and opportunities that may arise in the next five years

Encountering Modernity Meei-Hwa Chern, 2000

Taiwan's Security Policy Michael Chase, 2008 Confounding expectations Taiwan is reducing its military spending even as its sole adversary the People's Republic of China modernizes its military and significantly increases its defense budget Michael Chase examines the key factors that have shaped Taiwan's security policy over a span of three decades Chase explores both the role of US security assurances in formulating Taiwan's defense policy and the profound influence that domestic politics has played. He also considers the context of cross Strait relations and the implications of Taiwan's security choices for potential instability and conflict in the region and beyond. Relying on extensive Chinese language sources and interviews, he offers the most definitive treatment of Taiwan's security policy to date.

Transitions to Modernity in Taiwan Niki Alsford, 2017-07-20

On 19 April 1895 British Consul Lionel Charles Hopkins at the northern port of Tamsui was summoned by Tang Jingsong the governor of Taiwan to his yamen in the western district of Taipei. Shortly after his arrival Hopkins was handed a petition signed by a number of Taiwanese notables. The document appealed to the British government to incorporate the island into a protectorate in the wake of an impending Japanese invasion. The British declined. This book addresses the interconnectivity of these two communities by focusing on the market town of Dadaocheng in northern Taiwan. It seeks to contextualise and examine the establishment of a settler society as well as the creation of a sojourning British community showing how they became a precursor of modernity and middle classism there. By uncovering who the signatories of the petition were and what their motivation was to call upon the British consulate to bring the island under its protection, it brings into focus a remarkable period of transition not only for the history of Taiwan but also for the modern history of China. Using 1895 as a year of enquiry, it ultimately challenges the current orthodoxy that modernity in Taiwan was simply a by-product of the Japanese colonial period. As a social and transnational history of the events that took place in Taiwan during 1895, this book will be useful for students of East Asian Studies, Modern Chinese Studies and Asian History.
