The Book of Joy Dalai Lama, Desmond Tutu, Douglas Carlton Abrams, 2016-09-20 An instant New York Times bestseller Over 1 million copies sold Two spiritual giants Five days One timeless question Nobel Peace Prize Laureates His Holiness the

Dalai Lama and Archbishop Desmond Tutu have survived more than fifty years of exile and the soul crushing violence of oppression. Despite their hardships or as they would say because of them, they are two of the most joyful people on the planet. In April 2015, Archbishop Tutu traveled to the Dalai Lama's home in Dharamsala, India, to celebrate His Holiness's eightieth birthday and to create what they hoped would be a gift for others. They looked back on their long lives to answer a single burning question: How do we find joy in the face of life's inevitable suffering? They traded intimate stories, teased each other continually, and shared their spiritual practices. By the end of a week filled with laughter and punctuated with tears, these two global heroes had stared into the abyss and despair of our time and revealed how to live a life brimming with joy. This book offers us a rare opportunity to experience their astonishing and unprecedented week together, from the first embrace to the final good-bye. We get to listen as they explore the Nature of True Joy and confront each of the Obstacles of Joy: from fear, stress, and anger to grief, illness, and death. They then offer us the Eight Pillars of Joy, which provide the foundation for lasting happiness. Throughout, they include stories, wisdom, and science. Finally, they share their daily Joy Practices that anchor their own emotional and spiritual lives. The Archbishop has never claimed sainthood, and the Dalai Lama considers himself a simple monk. In this unique collaboration, they offer us the reflection of real lives filled with pain and turmoil in the midst of which they have been able to discover a level of peace, of courage, and of joy to which we can all aspire in our own lives. Styles of Joy SC Perot, 2025-02-25

Oneness Philip J. Ivanhoe, 2017-11-01 At the center of a constellation of key ideas in East Asian philosophical traditions there lies a conception of oneness among human beings Human beings are intricately and inextricably intertwined and share a common destiny with other people creatures and things The ramifications of this idea are wide reaching and resonate with important debates and concerns in contemporary Western philosophy but many at the forefront of their fields in the West are unaware of the fundamental shift in perspective that might be available to them One of Ivanhoe's aims in this work is to challenge the dominant paradigm of hyper individualism which still enjoys a commanding position in a great deal of contemporary theory and practice in the humanities and social sciences and to describe and advocate for an alternative conception and sense of self world and the relationship between them In particular Ivanhoe who has an extensive background in and has published influential work on virtue ethics and Asian philosophy investigates the implications of oneness for conceptions of the self virtue and human happiness Through the lens of oneness he explores topics such as conceptions of the self selfishness and self centeredness virtues spontaneity and happiness drawing support from wide ranging interdisciplinary sources Rather than starting from the standpoint of Western philosophy and then reaching out to Asian philosophy from a distance Ivanhoe advances a thesis drawn from East Asian sources and explicitly challenges the theoretical asymmetry that is characteristic of most comparative study which often simply applies Western theories to non Western material
