Tempest Classics Of World Literature:

The Classic and Creativity Jiang Zhuyu, 2025-09-04 This book explores the complex dialectical interplay between the classic and creativity through a unique comparative lens that bridges Chinese and Western literary traditions The interplay between the classic and creativity has been a fundamental question in literary criticism although readers may be more familiar with discussions from the Western literary tradition such as T S Eliot s seminal essay Tradition and the Individual Talent In this comparative study the author examines the parallel discussions in both Chinese and Western literary traditions highlighting the inherently dialectical relationship between classics and creativity She introduces the rich traditions of poetry and poetics from ancient China to modern times equally illuminating is her commentary on Western literary critics such as Alexander Pope William Wordsworth T S Eliot and Oscar Wilde Her engagement with literary works such as Shakespeare s The Tempest and the Book of Poetry and with literary practices such as adaptation and commentary is also remarkable as she addresses the contemporary challenges of studying the classics in an age of world literature Clear and accessible this work in East West comparative poetics will be valuable to scholars and students of literary theory comparative literature and world literature

The Classic and the Beautiful from the Literature of Three Thousand Years Henry Coppée, 1894 The Classic and the Beautiful from the Literature of Three Thousand Years Henry Coppée, 1898 Blazing the Path Chinua Achebe, Kehinde A. Ayoola, 2012 Blazing the Path Fifty Years of Things Fall Apart is a collection of new perspectives on Chinua Achebe s Things Fall Apart a novel that was first published in 1958 and which has since become a classic of world literature Aside from opening up the novel to new interpretive strategies of well established literary critics and clarifying some past ones this collection of essays repositions Things Fall Apart as a literary piece with interdisciplinary and multidimensional appeal The volume fulfills the objective of using the novel to interrogate the colonial and pre colonial African past with Nigeria s post modern present and projects the country into a future that looks to literature for a deeper understanding of where Nigeria is as a citizen of an emerging global village On the Horizon of World Literature Emily Sun, 2021-04-06 On the Horizon of World Literature compares literary texts from asynchronous periods of incipient literary modernity in different parts of the world Romantic England and Republican China These moments were oriented alike by world literature as a discursive framework of classifications that connected and re organized local articulations of literary histories and literary modernities World literature thus provided and continues to provide a condition of possibility for conversation between cultures as well as for their mutual provincialization The book offers readings of a selection of literary forms that serve also as textual sites for the enactment of new socio political forms of life The literary manifesto the tale collection the familiar essay and the domestic novel function as testing grounds for questions of both literary aesthetic and socio political importance What does it mean to attain a voice What is a common reader How does one dwell in the ordinary What is a woman In different languages and activating heterogeneous literary and philosophical traditions works by Percy

Bysshe Shelley Lu Xun Charles and Mary Lamb Lin Shu Zhou Zuoren Jane Austen and Eileen Chang explore the far from settled problem of what it means to be modern in different lifeworlds Sun's book brings to light the disciplinary historical impact world literature has had in shaping literary traditions and practices around the world The book renews the practice of close reading by offering the model of a deprovincialized close reading loosened from confinement within monocultural hermeneutic circles By means of its own focus on England and China the book provides methods useful for comparatists working between other Western and non Western languages It establishes the critical significance of Romanticism for the discipline of literary studies and opens up new paths of research in global Romanticism and global nineteenth century studies And it offers a new approach to analyzing the cosmopolitan character of the literary and cultural transformations of early twentieth century China
