Wolfgang Guggemos

Temple Of Jesus His Sacrificial Program Within A Cultural History Of Sacrifice:

The Temple of Jesus Bruce Chilton, 1992 The first study to develop a theory of sacrifice and then apply it to the sources of early Judaism as well as Jesus's activity Ritual sacrifice was one of the greatest concerns and most widely shared activities among Jews prior to the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem There is therefore a pressing need for systematic understanding of sacrifice both as an element of Judaic religion and a context for Jesus's activity The Temple of Jesus provides a theoretical model of sacrifice and develops that model to analyze classic texts from the Hebrew Scriptures and the Jewish War of Josephus and it argues that Jesus can only be appreciated as driven by a program to enact his own conception of Israel's purity in sacrifice in order to occasion the disclosure of God's kingdom Chilton contends that sacrifice is construed as a fundamentally social pre-civilized activity involving pragmata as defined as pure an emotional affect for participants and an ideology according to which sacrifice occasions a change of life in the community thus rejecting current anthropological studies that attempt to explain sacrifice genetically He shows that texts from Ezekiel Leviticus and Deuteronomy share a conviction that the covenant with Israel ensures the validity of sacrifice even as they define purity in various ways and emphasize differing affects of sacrifice Finally Chilton provides a new approach to Jesus comparing and contrasting his occupation of the Temple with the cultic activities of prominent Pharisees of his period

Jesus and the Temple Simon J. Joseph, 2016-01-08 Most Jesus specialists agree that the Temple incident led directly to Jesus' arrest but the precise relationship between Jesus and the Temple's administration remains unclear Jesus and the Temple examines this relationship exploring the reinterpretation of Torah observance and traditional Temple practices that are widely considered central components of the early Jesus movement Challenging a growing tendency in contemporary scholarship to assume that the earliest Christians had an almost uniformly positive view of the Temple's sacrificial system

Simon J Joseph addresses the ambiguous inconsistent and contradictory views on sacrifice and the Temple in the New Testament This volume fills a significant gap in the literature on sacrifice in Jewish Christianity It introduces a new hypothesis positing Jesus enactment of a program of radically nonviolent eschatological restoration an orientation that produced Jesus conflicts with his contemporaries and inspired the first attributions of sacrificial language to his death relationship of Christology and Mariology Mary enacts the reception of the Lord by God's faithful people the New Adam never chooses to be without the New Eve in God's new covenant family The Christology offered in this book is therefore both attuned to historical studies of Jesus and Second Temple Judaism and at the same time deeply traditional in a contemporary Catholic and ecumenical way
