Ten Strategies For Preaching In A Multi Media Culture:

Ten Strategies for Preaching in a Multimedia Culture Thomas H. Troeger, 1996 In Ten Strategies for Preaching in a Multi Media Culture Thomas H Troeger surveys how evolving forms of communications over the centuries have shaped presentation of the gospel He then provides an in depth analysis of ten strategies for creating sermons that effectively deliver the Word in an age of mass media and computerization To illustrate each strategy he offers gospel based sermons which include creative techniques such as mime drama sound simulation games art photography and hymns The Digital Pulpit Sunggu A. Yang, 2024-12-12 The focus of this volume is the practice of preaching as it is developed and performed in today's revolutionary context of digital technology and social media In the twentieth century the Christian pulpit adopted and made good use of digital technology and social media be it via television radio film cassette or CD ROM Now the revolutionary nature of digital technology and social media in the twenty first century demands an entirely new theological assessment with methodological adoptive concerns in relation to the practice of preaching In this volume a group of global homiletics provides their unique insights to the following questions and more What technologies do we have at our disposal and what technologies can we use in connection with preaching If any do we have a fine homiletical theology of digital technology and social media What are the best practices of preaching that can be conducted with current digital technology and social media platforms What merits and harms have we found in those best practices What new homiletical strategies are emerging in the current technological and social media context What contributions or connections do we see from existing homiletical theories in the current context of preaching By the Book Nomer Bernardino, Scripting a Sermon Shauna Hannan, Gael Chandler, 2024-11-12 Scripting a Sermon approaches common challenges for crafting sermons looking toward the essential components of filmmaking to help preachers create more potent sermons In this third volume in the Preaching and series Shauna K Hannan and Gael Chandler combine their expertise to focus on the convergences between the crafts of homiletics and filmmaking Looking to enliven the preached word this book draws attention to the ways in which the sermon is set up to captivate the audience For example sermon openings which are frequently disconnected from the sermon's overall point or needlessly long are explored through the techniques of filmmakers who use opening shots to introduce the narrative Readers will be enlightened to how filmmakers use these openings to set the tone of the film involve the audience in the characters story and establish expectations for what the audience will encounter throughout the film Hannan and Chandler give detailed and practical advice on specific aspects of this and other processes that preachers could use to craft far more effective sermons Other chapters cover building scenes and characters being a good editor of your work and crafting effective sermon endings Equipped with the wisdom of the best filmmakers skilled preachers will gain greater insight into powerful methods for captivating hearers and impacting our world Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes God Among Us Raymond Bystrom,2003 Giving Blood Leonard Sweet,2014-03-25 A Groundbreaking Resource for Preaching If the church wishes to converse effectively with a culture it must learn the culture s language Today shifts in technology mean that language is increasingly one of symbols and metaphors stories and images not words So what does this mean for the sermon that long standing word based tradition of Christianity In this ground breaking resource bestselling author Leonard Sweet offers an alternative to traditional models of preaching one that is fitting to a new culture and a new mode of thinking The first book of its kind to move preaching beyond its pulpit centric fixation and toward more interactive participatory modes of communication Sweet presents both a challenge and a path forward for a church struggling to maintain its relevance in a post modern media saturated culture Finding the Plot Roger Standing,2012-03-16 Endorsements Preaching at its best is truth on fire The real quality of this book is that it has been created from the author s own experience of the local pastorate and is concerned with practical insights and realities I warmly recommend it David Coffey Moderator of the Free Churches and General Secretary of the Baptist Union For some the phrase finding the plot suggests a stroll through a graveyard which is much like their view of preaching But Roger Standing uses the phrase to describe narrative preaching an approach that helps preachers accomplish their essential task to raise the dead Marshall Shelley Vice President Christianity Today International and editor of Leadership This book from a seasoned practitioner and an able thinker will provide the signposts required by many either for transforming their preaching style in mid career or for setting off on the right foot Nigel G Wright Principal of Spurgeon s College London Roger Standing breezily shares his enthusiasm for narrative preaching He combines theory about narrative and its cultural relevance with practical advice and preaching examples A helpful stimulus to any preacher to branch out into narrative preaching Michael Quicke Charles Koller Professor of Preaching and Communications Author Biography Roger Standing is the Deputy Principal of Spurgeon s College in London England where he teaches Mission Evangelism and Pioneer Ministry His other publications include Preaching for the Unchurched in an Entertainment Culture and Re Emerging Church strategies for reaching a returning generation Wonder Reborn Thomas Troeger,2010-07-27 This book explores an issue at the nerve of the long term health of all churches how godly wonder can be reborn through renewed attention to the place of beauty in preaching and worship The book opens with an exploration of the theological and cultural difficulties of defining beauty It traces the church s historical ambivalence about beauty and art and describes how in our own day the concept of beauty has been commercialized and degraded Troeger develops a theologically informed aesthetic that provides a counter cultural vision of beauty flowing from the love of God The book demonstrates how preachers can reclaim the place of beauty in preaching and worship Chapter two employs the concept of midrash to mine the history of congregational song as a resource for sermons Chapter three introduces methods from musicology for creating sermons on instrumental and choral works and for integrating word and music more effectively Chapter four explores how the close relationship between poetry and prayer can stir the homiletical imagination Each of these chapters includes a selection of the author's sermons illustrating how preachers can use these varied art forms to open a congregation to the beauty of God A final chapter recounts the responses of congregation members to whom the sermons were delivered It uses the insights gained from those experiences to affirm how the human heart hungers for a vision of wonder and beauty that empowers people to live more faithfully in the world

From Pew to Pulpit Clifton F. Guthrie, 2010-11-01 A down to earth practical introduction to the ins and outs of preaching for lay preachers bivocational pastors and others newly arrived in the pulpit Recent years have seen a considerable increase in the amount of financial resources required to support a full time pastor in the local congregation In addition large numbers of full time seminary trained clergy are retiring without commensurate numbers of new clergy able to take their place As a result of these trends a large number of lay preachers and bivocational pastors have assumed the principal responsibility for filling the pulpit week by week in local churches Most of these individuals observes Clifton Guthrie can draw on a wealth of life experiences as well as strong intuitive skills in knowing what makes a good sermon having listened to them much of their lives What they often don't bring to the pulpit however is specific detailed instruction in the how to's of preaching That is precisely what this brief practical guide to preaching has to offer Written with the needs of those for whom preaching is not their sole or primary occupation in mind it begins by emphasizing what every preacher brings to the pulpit an idea of what makes a sermon particularly moving or memorable to them From there the book moves into short chapters on choosing an appropriate biblical text or sermon topic learning how to listen to one's first impressions of what a text means moving from text or topic to the sermon itself while keeping the listeners needs firmly in mind making thorough and engaging use of stories in the sermon and delivering with passion and conviction The book concludes with helpful suggestions for resources including Bibles commentaries other print resources and websites
