Tent Of Miracles:

Tent of Miracles Jorge Amado, 2003 Explores the life of Pedro Archanjo a mulatto man who spent his life fighting prejudice

Rise and Fall of the Cosmic Race Marilyn Grace Miller, 2009-07-21 Latin America is characterized by a uniquely rich history of cultural and racial mixtures known collectively as mestizaje These mixtures reflect the influences of indigenous peoples from Latin America Europeans and Africans and spawn a fascinating and often volatile blend of cultural practices and products Yet no scholarly study to date has provided an articulate context for fully appreciating and exploring the profound effects of distinct local invocations of syncretism and hybridity Rise and Fall of the Cosmic Race fills this void by charting the history of Latin America's experience of mestizaje through the prisms of literature the visual and performing arts social commentary and music In accessible jargon free prose Marilyn Grace Miller brings to life the varied perspectives of a vast region in a tour that stretches from Mexico and the Caribbean to Brazil Ecuador and Argentina She explores the repercussions of mestizo identity in the United States and reveals the key moments in the story of Latin America's cult of synthesis Rise and Fall of the Cosmic Race examines the inextricable links between aesthetics and politics and unravels the threads of colonialism woven throughout national narratives in which mestizos serve as primary protagonists Illuminating the ways in which regional engagements with mestizaje represent contentious sites of nation building and racial politics Miller uncovers a rich and multivalent self portrait of Latin America's diverse populations

Identities in Flux Niyi Afolabi, 2021-02-01 Drawing on historical and cultural approaches to race relations Identities in Flux examines iconic Afro Brazilian figures and theorizes how they have been appropriated to either support or contest a utopian vision of multiculturalism Zumbi dos Palmares the leader of a runaway slave community in the seventeenth century is shown not as an anti Brazilian rebel but as a symbol of Black consciousness and anti colonial resistance Xica da Silva an eighteenth century mixed race enslaved woman who married her master and has been seen as a licentious mulatta questions gendered stereotypes of so called racial democracy Manuel Querino whose ethnographic studies have been ignored and virtually unknown for much of the twentieth century is put on par with more widely known African American trailblazers such as W E B Du Bois Niyi Afolabi draws out the intermingling influences of Yoruba and Classical Greek mythologies in Brazilian representations of the carnivalesque Black Orpheus while his analysis of City of God focuses on the growing centrality of the ghetto or favela as a theme and producer of culture in the early twenty first century Brazilian urban scene Ultimately Afolabi argues the identities of these figures are not fixed but rather inhabit a fluid terrain of ideological and political struggle challenging the idealistic notion that racial hybridity has eliminated racial discrimination in Brazil

Coast Guard Miracles of New Orleans CAPT Robert Mueller, U.S. Coast Guard (ret), 2023-02 With disaster preparedness of paramount importance it's time to take a deeper look at what went very right before, during and after Hurricane Katrina. Unlike the woefully unprepared civilian population, the Coast Guard was staged and ready. The unprecedented surface rescue put into action by the brave men and women under CAPT Robert Mueller's command took place with little fanfare, yet their actions saved the lives of more than thirty thousand people.

Flaubert's Tentation Mary Orr, 2008-11-13 This is the first comprehensive study in English of Flaubert's least well-known masterpiece, the final version of his Temptation of Saint Anthony 1874, which thanks to Foucault has the reputation of being an arcane and erudite fantastic library or, thanks to genetic criticism, is a narrative of Flaubert's personal aesthetic oeuvre de toute ma vie. By presuming instead no prior knowledge of the text, its versions or its contexts, Mary Orr provides new readings of the seven tableaux which comprise Temptation and new ways of interpreting the work as a whole, whether the reader is a newcomer to Flaubert or a specialist. Arguing that Flaubert was imagining his own epoch through the eyes of a visionary saint in the fourth century AD, Orr elucidates the dialogues between religion and science that are the dynamic of the work for the first time. She also insists on the meticulous accuracy and imaginative representations of the science of the work, proposing in the remapping analogy of her subtitle that Flaubert's Temptation is a paradigm of nineteenth-century French and indeed European literary science. For nineteenth-century French and Flaubert specialists, this book then challenges received critical wisdom on a number of fronts. Through his unlikely protagonist, visionary Flaubert's realism, anti-clericalism and orientalism are all given new airings in the religious and scientific evidence of the 1874 Temptation, as indeed in his temptation to write the life of his times.
