

THE ANIMAL, THE VEGETABLE, & JOHN D JONES

by Betsy Byars

Illustrated by Ruth Sanderson

It was supposed to be a great vacation for everyone. Clara and Deanie were thrilled about spending time with their father now that the divorce was final. But they're surprised and horrified at having to share Dad with his girl friend and her stuck-up son right in the same beach house! And for his part, John D Jones can't stand the arrangement either—especially the squabbling girls whom he dubs the Animal and the Vegetable.

When Clara falls asleep on her plastic raft and is washed out to sea, everyone is hopeful until the float turns up without her. It's the first time they've all pulled together. But is it too late to reveal their true feelings?

"No less a literary event than Byars's many award-winners, her new novel is a clear-sighted, quietly witty, and touching portrayal of family relationships. . . ."

—Publishers Weekly

"Byars succeeds in imbuing developments with the kind of electric reality that can charge a true-life drama. And so the reader, as well as the story's kids, comes away with a resonant reminder of what being human is all about."

—Booklist

"Spare and wryly humorous, the novel maintains a brisk pace while preserving intensity."

—The Horn Book

BETSY BYARS is the author of many books for children, including The Night Swimmers, available in a Dell Yearling edition. She is the winner of the Newbery Award and the American Book Award. Ms. Byars lives in Clemson, South Carolina.

RUTH SANDERSON, a well-known illustrator of children's books, lives in Wallingford, Connecticut.
