Blacks in the Army Air Forces During World War II Alan M. Osur, 1977 This book is based upon a PH D dissertation written by an Air Force officer who studied at the University of Denver Currently an Associate Professor of History at the Air Force Academy Major Osur s account relates how the leadership in the War Department and the U S Army Air Forces USAAF tried to deal with the problem of race and the prejudices which were reflected in the bulk of American society It tells a story of black racial protests and riots which such attitudes and discrimination provoked The author describes many of the discriminatory actions taken against black airmen whose goal was equality of treatment and opportunities as American citizens He also describes the role of black pilots as they fought in the Mediterranean theater of operations against the Axis powers In his final chapters he examines the continuing racial frictions within the Army Air Forces which led to black servicemen protests and riots in 1945 at several installations Despite these problems the author concludes that the Army Air Forces made substantial progress in race relations and in opening up additional career opportunities for black airmen in the post 1945 period Foreword by USAF Major General John W Huston Office of Air Force History Chief Basic Aerospace Doctrine of the United States Air Force Dennis M.
