The Art of Self-Improvement Anna Katharina Schaffner, 2021-01-01. A brilliant distillation of the key ideas behind successful self-improvement practices throughout history, showing us how they remain relevant today. Schaffner finds more in contemporary self-improvement literature to admire than criticize. A revelatory book. Kathryn Hughes, Times Literary Supplement. Self-help today is a multi-billion dollar global industry, one often seen as a by-product of neoliberalism and capitalism. Far from being a recent phenomenon, however, the practice of self-improvement has a long and rich history extending all the way back to ancient China. For millennia, philosophers, sages, and theologians have reflected on the good life and devised strategies on how to achieve it. Focusing on ten core ideas of self-improvement that run through the world's advice literature, Anna Katharina Schaffner reveals the ways they have evolved across cultures and historical eras and why they continue to resonate with us today. Reminding us that there is much to learn from looking at time-honed models, Schaffner also examines the ways that self-improvement practices provide powerful barometers of the values, anxieties, and aspirations that preoccupy us at particular moments in time and expose basic assumptions about our purpose and nature What Do You Really Want? St. Ignatius Loyola and the Art of Discernment Jim Manney, 2015-04-15 What should I do We ask the question when we pray We ask it when we run out of answers to our problems We ask it when we face big decisions We ask it when we get out of bed in the morning How should I live this day as well as I can We can find answers through learning the art of discernment the wisdom that enables us to see and interpret the leading of the Holy Spirit as it is manifested in the inner lives of our hearts The great master of this art was St Ignatius Loyola author of The Spiritual Exercises who believed that the ability to discern the spirits is one of the most important skills a Christian could have Ignatius believed that the answer to the question What Should I Do is found in the shifting sea of feelings insights leadings and intuitions of our affective lives What Do You Really Want shows us how to understand these emotions and use what we learn to make the choices that best serve God and bring his love to the people in our lives It shows the truth of one of Ignatius's greatest insights that when we find what we really want we find what God wants too because the deepest desires of our hearts were placed there by God The Art of Terrestrial Diagrams in Early China Michelle H. Wang, 2023-11-21 A study of early Chinese maps using interdisciplinary methods This is the first English language monograph on the early history of maps in China centering on those found in three tombs that date from the fourth to the second century BCE and constitute the entire known corpus of early Chinese maps ditu More than a millennium separates them from the next available map in the early twelfth century CE Unlike extant studies that draw heavily from the history of cartography this book offers an alternative perspective by mobilizing methods from art history archaeology material culture religion and philosophy It examines the diversity of forms and functions in early Chinese ditu to argue that these pictures did not simply represent natural topography and built environments but rather made and remade worlds for the living and the dead Wang explores the multifaceted and multifunctional diagrammatic tradition of rendering space in early China
