THE DARK BACKWARD

The Dark Backward

Henry Woodd Nevinson

The Dark Backward:

The Dark Backward Adam Rifkin, 1989 In the Dark Backward Henry Woodd Nevinnson, 1970 Shakespeare as Prompter Murray Cox, Alice Theilgaard, 1994 Prompting is the thematic thread that pervades the pages of this book Its primary connotation is that of the prompter who is urgently called into action at moments of anxiety when narrative begins to fail The central dynamic issue concerns the amending imagination as a prompting resource which through creativity and the aesthetic imperative can be invoked in this therapeutic space when the patient through fear resistance or distraction is unable to continue with his story Psychotherapy can be regarded as a process in which the patient is enabled to do for himself what he cannot do on his own Shakespeare as the spokesman for all other poets and dramatists prompts the therapist in the incessant search for those resonant rhythms and mutative metaphors which augment empathy and make for deeper communication and which also facilitates transference interpretation and resolution The cadence of the spoken word and the different laminations of silence always call for more finely tuned attentiveness than the therapist unprompted can offer The authors show how Shakespeare can prompt therapeutic engagement with inaccessible patients who might otherwise be out of therapeutic reach At the same time they demonstrate that the clinical off stage world of therapy can also prompt the work of the actor in his on stage search for representational precision The Dark Backward Gregory Hall, 1995 While checking her dead husband s papers an American journalist working in London discovers he told her lies including that he was an aristocrat She sets out to learn the truth and places her life in danger A first novel The Dark Backward Marie Buchanan, 1975 The Whirligig of Time Zdeněk Stríbrný, 2007 Zdenek Stribrny an internationally respected Shakespeare scholar was Professor of English and American Studies at Charles University Prague until the Russian occupation of 1968 He was reinstated after the Velvet Revolution of 1989 This volume prefaced by a new autobiographical introduction collects papers on Shakespeare most of which were written originally in English from various periods of his eventful career Their two main themes are the role of Time and the Czech critical and theatrical response to Shakespeare with special emphasis on the various ways in which during an era of censorship productions offered coded political readings of the plays Zdenek Stribrny is Professor Emeritus of English and American Studies at Charles University Prague Lois Potter is Ned B Allen Professor of English at the University of Delaware Promesas: Geography of the Impossible Gloria Vando, 1993-01-01 This highly praised collection explores the disparity between promises and reality especially as seen from the vantage point of the Hispanic Americans from the time of Columbus to the present Promesas Geography of the Impossible is Gloria Vando s long awaited first book of poems a reunion of some of the complex and fully realized works that have appeared in numerous literary magazines and anthologies She received the 1991 Billee Murray Denny Poetry Prize and was a finalist in the 1992 Walt Whitman Poetry Context and the 1989 Poetry Society of America s Alice Fay DiCastagnola Award Doing Shakespeare Simon Palfrey, 2014-10-25 A thoroughly revised edition of the successful student text Doing

Shakespeare first published in 2005 The book's success lies in the close readings of speeches and scenes it gives students demystifying the language of the plays and critical approaches to them This new edition introduces a new way of approaching Shakespeare's text through ideas of performance and the actor's role and restructures the content to make it easier to navigate with clear signposting throughout guiding students to the content most useful to them Simon Palfrey takes a direct approach to the common difficulties faced by students doing Shakespeare and tackles them head on in a no nonsense style making the book especially accessible He brings us much closer to the animate life of the plays as things that are not finished monuments but living material in process and up for grabs empowering students to see opportunities for their own creative or re creative readings of Shakespeare

The Tempest Otto Witt, 1899 Halls of Fame John D'Agata, 2013-06-18

John D Agata is an alchemist who changes trash into purest gold Guy Davenport Harper's John D Agata journeys the endless corridors of America's myriad halls of fame and faithfully reports on what he finds there In a voice all his own he brilliantly maps his terrain in lists collage and ludic narratives With topics ranging from Martha Graham to the Flat Earth Society from the brightest light in Vegas to the artist Henry Darger who died in obscurity Halls of Fame hovers on the brink between prose and poetry deep seriousness and high comedy the subject and the self
