The Death of Metaphor Desmond Egan, 1990

Metonymies and Metaphors for Death Around the World

Wojciech Wachowski, Karen Sullivan, 2021-11-29 This book reflects on the ways in which metonymy and metaphor are used conceptually and linguistically to mitigate the more difficult dimensions of death and dying setting out a unique line of research within Conceptual Metaphor Theory The volume argues that metonymic and metaphoric descriptions of death and dying reflect taboos concealment and other considerations not found in figurative descriptions of life producing distinct forms of euphemism frames and mental spaces particular to conceptualizations of death The first part takes a closer look at metonymy to illuminate the ways in which it allows a person to zoom in on death's more inoffensive dimensions or zoom out from its more troubling aspects The second part focuses on the more palatable concepts which metaphorically structure and help to better understand death A wide range of classical and modern examples from European Asian Australian and African languages and cultures showcase points of overlap and divergence Opening up new lines of inquiry into research on death and dying and offering a linguistically focused complement to anthropological and religious studies on the topic this book will be of interest to scholars in cognitive linguistics sociolinguistics cross cultural communication and cultural studies

Variations on Metaphor

Ilaria Rizzato, Francesca Strik Lievers, Elisabetta Zurru, 2021-08-13 Metaphor is a fascinating and at the same time complex phenomenon It can be approached from a multitude of perspectives and the linguistic realizations of metaphors vary not only across languages but also across text genres cultures and time This book reflects such complexity and variability by gathering a collection of studies that adopt different theoretical views and explore the actual uses of metaphors in different text types literary folkloric journalistic and scientific and languages Hungarian Chinese French English Italian Latin and Ancient Greek By providing the reader with a view of metaphor and current metaphor research which is both diversified and coherent this volume will provide insights for cognitive linguists scholars involved in metaphor studies and more generally readers interested in linguistic variation

Metaphor, Cancer and the End of Life

Elena Semino, Zsófia Demjén, Andrew Hardie, Sheila Payne, Paul Rayson, 2017-11-28 This book presents the methodology findings and implications of a large scale corpus based study of the metaphors used to talk about cancer and the end of life including care at the end of life in the UK It focuses on metaphor as a central linguistic and cognitive tool that is frequently used to talk and think about sensitive and subjective experiences such as illness emotions death and dying and that can both help and hinder communication and well being depending on how it is used The book centers on a combination of qualitative analyses and innovative corpus linguistic methods This methodological assemblage was applied to the systematic study of the metaphors used in a 1.5 million word corpus The corpus consists of interviews with and online forum posts written by members of three stakeholder groups namely patients diagnosed with advanced cancer unpaid carers looking after a relative with a diagnosis of advanced cancer and healthcare professionals The book presents a range of qualitative and quantitative findings that have implications for metaphor theory and analysis corpus linguistic and computational approaches to metaphor and training and practice in cancer care and hospice palliative and end of life care

The Background and Content of Paul's Cultic Atonement Metaphors Stephen Finlan,2004 Metaphor and Thought Andrew Ortony,1993-11-26

Metaphor and Thought first published in 1979 reflects the surge of interest in and research into the nature and function of metaphor in language and thought In this revised and expanded second edition the editor has invited the contributors to update their original essays to reflect any changes in their thinking Reorganised to accommodate the shifts in central theoretical issues the volume also includes six new chapters that present important and influential fresh ideas about metaphor that have appeared in such fields as the philosophy of language and the philosophy of science linguistics cognitive and clinical psychology education and artificial intelligence Filmspeak Edward Tomarken,2012-09-20 A highly original book that demonstrates how ideas stemming from complex literary theory can be found in even the most mainstream movies

Divine Metaphors in Selected Hebrew Psalms of Lamentation Alec Basson,2006 In this book Alec Basson examines the divine metaphors in a selection of biblical Hebrew Psalms of Lamentation from a cognitive anthropological perspective The study signals a move beyond the more traditional approaches to the Psalms and argues that the textual information in these poems is more than literary information as such it is also a cognitive representation of the psalmist s world The divine portrayals arise from the supplicant s cognitive organisation and utilisation of cultural information which include the everyday experiences In situations of affliction the poet employs various cognitive strategies viz cultural models image schemas and conceptual metaphors as a means of portraying the deity The exploration illustrates the link between the psalmist s cultural experience cognitive construal of reality and the metaphorical representations The utilisation of the different cognitive tools gives rise to new and recurring images of the deity and accounts for the multiple depictions of Yahweh The investigation arrives at the conclusion that to appreciate fully the divine metaphors used in the Psalms of Lamentation one has to examine the cognitive world of the poet A New Identity of Obligation: Metaphors and Paul's

Ethical Argument in Romans 6:1-14 Andrés D. Vera,2025-06-19 In Romans 6 1 14 Paul corrects an erroneous ethical conclusion drawn from the narrative of God s grace in Romans 3 5 This innovative study employs tools from cognitive linguistics to unveil Paul s sophisticated rhetorical strategy for resolving the indicative imperative tension By moving beyond traditional theological frameworks the book shows how Paul presents believers new identity as defined by a new obligation illuminating the metaphorical narrative that undergirds Paul s logic Readers will better understand the importance of conceptual spaces like in sin and in Christ and how Paul conceptualizes the relationship between believers and their old selves who have been crucified Metaphor and Argumentation in Climate Crisis Discourse Anaïs Augé,2023-06-28

This volume sheds light on the argumentative role of metaphor in climate change discourse unpacking the ways in which stakeholders use specific metaphors to influence perceptions of the climate crisis While existing research has explored the explanatory function of metaphors in communication on climate change this book offers an alternative view one which posits that metaphors can go beyond disseminating scientific observations to promoting biases in the depiction of these observations Aug analyses oft used ideas in climate change communication such as greenwashing drawn from a wide ranging corpus spanning media discourse scientific discourse NGO communications political speech and social media messages in English The book presents an overview of different arguments conveyed through metaphors around five key themes climate change mitigation the evolution of climate change global and local effects the significance of climate change in specific countries and the relationship between climate change and other contemporary social issues The volume highlights how the complexity of climate change often necessitates the use of metaphor and the value of further research on the argumentative function of metaphor in elucidating its ideological dimensions in climate crisis discourse This book will be of interest to scholars in discourse analysis corpus linguistics cognitive linguistics and environmental communication
