The Defeat Of Baudelaire A Psycho Analytical Study Of The Neurosis Of Charles Baudelaire:

The Defeat of Baudelaire René Laforgue, 1932 The Defeat of Baudelaire Rene Laforgue, Herbert Agar, 1922 The Defeat of Baudelaire René Laforgue, 1978 Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Art, V.2 Mary M. Gedo, 2013-05-13 This new hardcover annual offers a unique scholarly format an interdisciplinary dialogue that it is hoped will foster the development of a sound useful methodology for applying psychoanalytic insight to art and artists The series provides a medium for those who study art those who interpret it and occasionally those who create it formally to explore the meaning of an artistic work as the direct reflection of the inner world of its creator Within each volume individual topics are addressed by either an art historian or a psychoanalyst with a response frequently tendered by an expert from the other field Reviews of important books of cross disciplinary interest are treated in a similar manner and include rebuttals by the authors themselves It is precisely this exchange of ideas among scholars with difference perspectives on the meaning of a work of art that sets PPA apart from the standard art history publication Its depth of scholarship coupled with its innovative format make it a fascinating addition to the burgeoning field of psychoanalytic studies of art history Foucault on the Arts and Letters

Catherine M. Soussloff, 2016-10-06 As one of the most important philosophers of the 20th century Michel Foucault's reputation today rests on his political philosophy in relation to the contemporary subject in a neo liberal and globalized society This book offers insight into the role of the arts in Foucault's thought as a means to better understanding his contribution to larger debates concerning contemporary existence Visual culture literary film and performance studies have all engaged with Foucauldian theories but a full examination of Foucault's significance for aesthetic discourse has been lacking until now This book argues that Foucault's particular approach to philosophy as a way of thinking the self through the work of art provides significant grounds for rethinking his impact today The volume moves across as many disciplinary boundaries as Foucault himself did demonstrating the value of Foucault's approach to aesthetic discourse for our understanding of how the arts and humanities reflect upon contemporary existence in a globalized society

Biswas,2024-08-20 The Major Literary Seminars of Jacques Lacan considers the three key phases of Lacan's interest in literary topics. Santanu Biswas first examines the seminars given between 1955 and 1961 in which Lacan spoke on Edgar Allan Poe's short story 'The Purloined Letter', Hamlet, Sophocles' Antigone and Paul Claudel's 'The Co fontaine Trilogy' and where literature is related to meaning. This is followed by an exploration of Lacan's seminar on 'Lituraterre' in 1971 wherein Lacan elaborates on the different ways in which literature appeared to turn towards 'lituraterre'. Finally Biswas considers Lacan's 1975-1976 seminar on James Joyce who created literature out of 'litter' and was concerned with 'jouissance' rather than with meaning. The Major Literary Seminars of Jacques Lacan will be of great interest to Lacanian psychoanalysts, other mental health practitioners interested in the teachings of Lacan and academics and students of Lacanian studies, literature and psychoanalysis.

Phenomenology of Perception Maurice Merleau-Ponty,2013-04-15 First published in 1945 Maurice Merleau-Ponty's monumental Phénoménologie de la perception signalled the arrival of a major new philosophical and intellectual voice in post-war Europe. Breaking with the prevailing picture of existentialism and phenomenology at the time, it has become one of the landmark works of twentieth-century thought. This new translation, the first for over fifty years, makes this classic work of philosophy available to a new generation of readers. Phenomenology of Perception stands in the great phenomenological tradition of Husserl, Heidegger and Sartre. Yet Merleau-Ponty's contribution is decisive as he brings this tradition and other philosophical predecessors, particularly Descartes and Kant, to confront a neglected dimension of our experience: the lived body and the phenomenal world. Charting a bold course between the reductionism of science on the one hand and intellectualism on the other, Merleau-Ponty argues that we should regard the body not as a mere biological or physical unit but as the body which structures one's situation and experience within the world. Merleau-Ponty enriches his classic work with engaging studies of famous cases in the history of psychology and neurology as well as phenomena that continue to draw our attention, such as phantom limb syndrome, synaesthesia and hallucination. This new translation includes many helpful features, such as the reintroduction of Merleau-Ponty's discursive Table of Contents as subtitles into the body of the text, a comprehensive Translator's Introduction to its main themes, essential notes explaining key terms of translation, an extensive Index and an important updating of Merleau-Ponty's references to now available English translations. Also included is a new foreword by Taylor Carman and an introduction to Merleau-Ponty by Claude Lefort. Translated by Donald A. Landes.

Publisher of the Mind Brett Kahr,2025-08-07 Karnac Books was founded on 24 March 1950 by Harry Karnac as a general interest bookshop at Gloucester Road, London SW7. Following strong sales of a D.W. Winnicott title, Harry Karnac began to increase his stock of mental health titles until they came to occupy the full floor of the shop's basement. Word spread through the global mental health community and Karnac Books became the epicentre for English mental health publications, not only as a must-visit venue but also as a thriving mail order business. Before long, Harry took the plunge into publishing alongside bookselling and the Karnac imprint was born. Since 1950, Karnac has changed hands several times and

Brett Kahr has met befriended and interviewed every single owner from the eponymous Harry Karnac to the present day His detailed knowledge as customer author and friend of Karnac makes him the perfect person to write this history undertaken as a labour of love and published to celebrate Karnac s 75th anniversary The book begins with an amusing introduction on the welcome affliction of Karnacitis swiftly followed by a comprehensive history of early psychoanalytic publishing before leading into the first instalment of the chronicles of Karnac The behind the scenes story of the iconic Karnac Books shows why it rose to be a pivotal member of the mental health community and continues to this day The Oceanic Feeling J.M Masson,2012-12-06 By way of a personal note I can reveal to the reader that I was led to Sanskrit by an exposure to Indian philosophy while still a child These early mystical interests gave way in the university to scholarly pursuits and through reading the works of Franklin Edgerton Louis Renou and Etienne Lamotte I was introduced to the scientific study of the past to philology and the academic study of an ancient literature In this period I wrote a number of books on Sanskrit aesthetics concentrating on the sophisticated Indian notions of suggestion This work has culminated in a three volume study of the Dhvanyaloka and the Dhvanyalokalocana for the Harvard Oriental Series Eventually I found that I wanted to broaden my concern with India to learn what was at the universal core of my studies and what could be of interest to everyone In reading Indian literature I came across so many bizarre tales and ideas that seemed incomprehensible and removed from the concerns of everyday life that I became troubled Vedantic ideas of the world as a dream for example to which I had been particularly partial seemed grandiose and megalomaniac I turned away with increasing scepticism from what I felt to be the hysterical outpourings of mystical and religious fanaticism
