The Demon in the Sun Parlor Lester Goran, 1968 She Loved Me Once, and Other Stories Lester Goran, 1997 With evocative settings and narratives ranging from the supernatural to the humorous from bawdy hilarity to detailed realism These stories create a world of poignant and magical times and places within the mundane affairs of ordinary men and women The Demon Princes, Vol. 1 Jack Vance, 1997-04-15 Kirth Gersen his family and home planet destroyed in the Mount Pleasant Massacre sets out on a mission of revenge to find and eliminate the five Demon Princes responsible The Bright Streets of Surfside Lester Goran, Isaac Bashevis Singer, 1994 This work chronicles 10 years in the life of Isacc Bashevis Singer as shared by a fellow writer close to him at the time Goran recounts the course of their friendship This is an opportunity to learn about the Yiddish writer who often concealed his real beliefs feelings and personal history Bing Crosby's Last Song Lester Goran, 2015-03-17 A novel by the author of The New York Times Notable Book Tales from the Irish Club It is June 1968 Robert Kennedy has just been murdered the streets are simmering with discontent and the Irish community of Oakland Park in Pittsburgh is being swept away by change Daly Racklin becomes the reluctant leader of a dying neighborhood culture and people He is at once a man torn by his father's omnipotent shadow and the struggles of his own heart and as his elevated position brings him from one home to another he increasingly discovers the importance of what he sees disappearing Bing Crosby's Last Song is a hilarious touching heartwrenching story of survival and love a community's demise and a wanderer's rebirth Full of barroom lore hard bitten wisdom wry humor and faith tempered by skepticism this novel will delight readers of William Kennedy and Frank McCourt Outlaws of the Purple Cow and Other Stories Lester Goran, 1999 In this his third collection of stories Lester Goran moves us again through the times and places indelibly stamped with his wit and insight about people and events lost to history Outlaws of the Purple Cow centers around the domains of Irish American men and women in Pittsburgh Goran creates once more his world of poignant and magical times and places within the mundane affairs of ordinary men and women Goran's evocative settings and narratives range from the supernatural to the humorous from bawdy to richly detailed realism Goran with his mastery of language and images chronicles in stories the unheralded laughter and sorrows of Americans seldom noted in fiction Goran creates once more his world of poignant and magical times and places within the mundane affairs of ordinary men and women Goran's evocative settings and narratives range from the supernatural to the humorous from bawdy to richly detailed realism the bewildering ceremony enacted on a suburban lawn on Good Friday an inventory of the loves of a lifetime compiled on scraps of paper and matchbook covers the young man home on leave from the army who encounters a woman whose entire life is reflected in the wires holding together her threadbare Christmas tree and the young man on the first day of his first job who delivers roses to a house where the homeowner had died since ordering the flowers Goran with his mastery of language and images chronicles in stories the unheralded laughter and sorrows of Americans seldom noted in fiction Call Him

Demon Henry Kuttner and CL Moore, 2013-06-10 In the 1920s a group of children staying at their grandmother's house realize that one of the uncles who lives there is not a real person and only arrived there a few weeks before. He is able to exert some kind of mental influence over the adults of the household which makes them believe he has always been a member of the family. The Wrong Uncle as they call him is a kind of projection or more precisely a detachable limb in human form of a creature which lives in a cavern deep beneath the house accessed by a portal in the attic. The thing has only two emotions: hunger and satiety and it only eats raw meat.

Tales from the Irish Club Lester Goran, 1996 This collection of short stories contains 11 wry accounts of an enclave of Irish Americans in Pittsburgh during and after World War II. They are often comic and sometimes tragic tales of Jack Lanahan who carves nothing but wooden roosters, Long Conall O'Brien and others.

The Book Lover's Guide to Florida Kevin M. McCarthy, 1992 Here is the book lover's literary tour of Florida: an exhaustive survey of writers, books and literary sites in every part of the state. The state is divided into ten areas and each one is described from a literary point of view. You will learn what authors lived in or wrote about a place, which books describe the place, what important movies were made there, even the literary trivia which the true Florida book lover will want to know. You can use the book as a travel guide to a new way to see the state, as an armchair guide to a better understanding of our literary heritage, or as a guide to what to read next time you head to a bookstore or library.
