Africa Augustus Henry Keane, 1895 South Africa Augustus Henry Keane, 1904 Kinshasa Filip De Boeck, Marie-Françoise Plissart, 2014-03-24 Reading African cities into contemporary theory reprint of a richly illustrated reference work In their internationally acclaimed publication Kinshasa Tales of the Invisible City anthropologist Filip De Boeck and photographer Marie Fran oise Plissart provide a history not only of the physical and visible urban reality that Kinshasa presents today but also of a second invisible city as it exists in the mind and imagination of its inhabitants They bring to light a mirroring reality lurking underneath the surface of the visible world and explore the constant transactions that take place between these two levels in Kinshasa's urban scape. With the exhibition that accompanied the release of their Kinshasa book, the authors won a Golden Lion at the 11th International Architecture Biennale in Venice 2004. This beautifully illustrated publication is now again made available. Based on longstanding field research, it provides insight into local social and cultural imaginaries and thus in the imaginative ways in which local urban subjects continue to make sense of their worlds and invent cultural strategies to cope with the breakdown of urban infrastructure.
