

Sir Gawain and the Green Knight Study Guide

During a Christmas celebration, the Green Knight enters King Arthur's castle, and presents a challenge to his knights to see how brave they are. His test is a beheading game.

At first, none of King Arthur's knights will accept the challenge, as they suspect some kind of trick. Arthur is ashamed and prepares to accept the challenge himself.

Sir Gawain is knighted when he turns out to be the only person who will accept the Green Knight's challenge.

When Gawain chops off the Green Knight's head, it does not kill him, and he puts his head back on top of his body.

When it is the Green Knight's turn to chop off Gawain's head, the Green Knight decides to give him another year to live since he is so young. He tells him to meet him at the Green Chapel next Christmas.

Towards the end of the story, Sir Gawain unknowingly stays at the Green Knight's castle for 3 days.

While staying at the castle, Gawain and the lord make a deal, to give each other whatever they earn during the day. This means that the lord will make a meal out of the animals he captures while hunting, while Gawain will give him whatever he receives during the day at the lord's castle.

While staying at the Green Knight's castle, Gawain manages to keep his morality and refuses to sleep with the lady of the castle when she tries to seduce him.

Each day that he stays at the Green Knight's castle, he gives the lord kisses, since that is what the lady of the castle is giving him.

The Green Knight's last test for Gawain, involves giving him a choice between lying about being given the scarf, or keeping the scarf that supposedly will prevent him from being killed.

Every day that Gawain stays at the Green Knight's castle, the Green Knight makes his dinner out of whatever animal he managed to hunt down during the day. Those animals are a deer, a boar, and a fox.

The Green Knight was probably testing his honesty, since the first two nights demonstrated that he was not going to commit adultery.

On the third day, Gawain once again refuses to sleep with the lady of the castle. Before she leaves, she gives him a green scarf that supposedly will prevent him from being killed. Later, when the Lord shows up, Gawain does not give him the scarf as a gift and instead kisses him 3 times on the cheek. (He lies.)

On Christmas (the fourth day), the Green Knight takes 3 swings at Gawain's head at the Green Chapel. He does not follow through on the first two strikes, because Gawain passed the test on the first two nights. However, he does nick Gawain's neck on the third strike, as a slight punishment for his lie on the third day.

Gawain wears the green scarf as a reminder of his failure to be completely truthful.

with an exploration of the nature and structure of contesting as it relates to flyting interactions He then examines the covert contract formation that binds the verbal and physical aspects of the duel analyzes the heroic generation of speeches and their dialogic interrelation in the flyting process itself and illustrates the adaptability of flyting patterns within a wide variety of cultural and ideological settings Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
