SMU Reflections Bonnie Brunk Hillerbrand, 1986 The Negro's Church Benjamin E. Mays, 2015-08-04 Benjamin E Mays 1894 1984 was President and Professor Emeritus of Morehouse College Leak Detector for Use in Space Environment Kenneth W. Woodis, 1970 NASA Technical Note ,1970 Evangelism and the Openness of God Vaughn W. Baker, 2012-12-18 In Evangelism and the Openness of God Vaughn Baker argues that a dynamic concept of God as articulated in open theism better serves the evangelistic mission of the church than does conventional theology Open theism affirms an ontology of love as opposed to power and it focuses on God's kenosis in creation allowing for the authentic freedom of creation influenced by divine persuasion God's genuine temporal relationship with creation one that is open synergist and non coercive provides a new perspective for evangelistic activity In this volume the author has made a valuable contribution to the integration of new developments in theology and evangelism The Oxbridge Evangelist Michael J. Gehring, 2017-02-28 In The Oxbridge Evangelist Motivations Practices and Legacy of C S Lewis Michael Gehring examines the evangelistic practices of one of the most significant lay evangelists of the twentieth century In the early 1930s not many who knew Lewis would have guessed that he would become such a significant evangelist He has left an evangelistic legacy that has influenced millions across the world Yet Lewis scholarship has not given sufficient attention to this crucial aspect of his legacy This work examines Lewis's loss and recovery of faith and it shows how his experience heightened his own awareness of the loss of the Christian faith in England Because of his ability to identify with others Lewis engaged in the work of evangelism with uncanny skill This work required singular courage on his part it cost him dearly professionally and in his relationships Gehring critically explores Lewis's motivations practices and legacy of evangelism In doing so he provides penetrating insight for those interested in the theory and practice of evangelism in a culture that too readily leaves it to the crazies of the Christian tradition or relegates it to the margins of church life The Evangelistic Love of God & Neighbor Bishop Scott J. Jones, 2010-08-01 There are it seems as many definitions of the term evangelism as there are people doing the defining For some it means proclaiming the gospel to those who have not heard it To others it means making disciples of Jesus Christ To others it means working for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God For still others it has principally to do with building vibrant healthy congregations Underlying this confusion is a fundamental inability to locate the practice of evangelism within one's overall theological convictions We will never understand the part that proclamation disciple making kingdom building and church growth play in evangelism until we first ask a more important question What does evangelism have to do with who God is What is it we know about God that makes evangelism a central part of what it means to be Christian In this comprehensive theology of evangelism Scott J Jones proposes to ground the practice of evangelism in an understanding of God's love for the world specifically as seen in the incarnation of God in Christ In Jesus God took on all of what it means to be human Because of this evangelism must be a ministry to the whole person The typical distinctions between soul winning social action and church growth evaporate individual conversion and acts of mercy are part of the same ministry of bringing persons more fully into the reign of a loving God Image and Reflection Ethel C. Bratcher,1973 Hoping to become famous Broderick practices on a tongue depressor to become the world s greatest surfing mouse Theological Reflection and Education for Ministry John E. Paver,2016-02-17 A major and continuing problem for theological education and the practice of Christian ministry is how to best achieve a genuine integration between theory and practice theology and experience The key claim of this book is that theological reflection beginning with experience is a method of integration and that pastoral supervision is a vehicle for theological reflection In establishing this claim John Paver demonstrates that the model and method have potential to be a catalyst for reform within theological colleges and seminaries Three different theological reflection models are developed and critiqued in this book and their capacity to be developed in particular contexts is explored This book does not stop at ministry cultural and personal integration but is bold enough to make recommendations for structural integration within the theological institution

Digital (In)justice in the Smart City Debra Mackinnon,Ryan Burns,Victoria Fast,2022-12-21 In the contemporary moment smart cities have become the dominant paradigm for urban planning and administration which involves weaving the urban fabric with digital technologies Recently however the promises of smart cities have been gradually supplanted by recognition of their inherent inequalities and scholars are increasingly working to envision alternative smart cities Informed by these pressing challenges Digital In Justice in the Smart City foregrounds discussions of how we should think of and work towards urban digital justice in the smart city It provides a deep exploration of the sources of injustice that percolate throughout a range of sociotechnical assemblages and it questions whether working towards more just sustainable liveable and egalitarian cities requires that we look beyond the limitations of smartness altogether The book grapples with how geographies impact smart city visions and roll outs on the one hand and how unjust geographies are produced in smart pursuits on the other Ultimately Digital In Justice in the Smart City envisions alternative cities smart or merely digital and outlines the sorts of roles that the commons utopia and the law might take on in our conceptions and realizations of better cities
