National Geographic Kids Dinosaur Atlas National Geographic, 2022-09-20

More than 250 million years ago our planet looked and felt a lot different from how it does now. The seven separate continents we have today hadn't yet taken shape. Instead there was only one supercontinent called Pangaea. This was the beginning of the time of the dinosaurs. Journey from the Triassic to the Jurassic to the Cretaceous to find out how Earth slowly shifted over time and how the variety of dinosaurs ruling the planet changed too. Discover how some of these creatures took to the land and others to water or air and what their habitats were like. Explore how these prehistoric lands correspond to current locations and hear from paleontologists about the groundbreaking discoveries they are making in these fossil rich places today. Experience the Mesozoic world of the dinosaurs as never before. This is one atlas to sink your teeth into.
