Romm,2012-12-06 FAY SUDWEEKS AND CELIA ROMM At the tum of the twenty first century global communication is changing the fabric of society at a rate never experienced before The Internet in particular has redrawn the map of global economy To be competitive in today s marketplace companies need to expand commercial activities beyond national borders The global network of electronic infrastructure has played a significant role in this expansion but the technology itself is not the factor driving the business revolution The changes are driven by the interaction of information technology and customer demand Customers are not only adapting to new technologies they are demanding more and more global competition Electronic commerce therefore is arguably the most important economic trend of our time Its presence on the Internet in particular is becoming crucial to the effective functioning of organisations especially in a world where companies need to deal with suppliers customers partners and their own units distributed across the world A global business industry created by the Internet is no longer a projected vision of technocrats it is a reality The Internet is already playing a significant role in determining corporate strategy and in creating values The Internet For Dummies John R.

Why Do Christian Churches Build Congregations Online? Stefan Gelfgren,2025-10-21 Why Do Christian Churches Build Congregations Online examines the different ways that Christian churches and denominations perceive and use digital media in their external work This is explored through three different case studies with dissimilar approaches to digital media to understand the prerequisites and conditions for media usage from a religious institutional perspective The case studies included are as follows The Charismatic movement with Pentecostal origin The Church of Sweden The Laestadian movement These cases range from a positive and outgoing attitude toward digital media to a hesitant and reluctant approach The highly secularized and digitally permeated Swedish society gives the context in which the religious institutions must relate and understand themselves in relation to From a mediatization approach the national context limits and sets presumptions for the negotiating process This volume provides an understanding of the relationship between external societal and internal factors such as theology and historical origin This book will also broaden the understanding of the field of digital religion and emphasize the need to discuss contemporary religion in terms of religion in a digital age Changing World Economic Order in the Post-Pandemic Period Mahapatra, Sushanta Kumar,Sarin, Vishal,2023-06-02 Post COVID 19 the world will never be the same The pandemic not only shattered many assumptions about economic developments and growth but it also challenged our preparedness to face any unpredictable challenge as a human civilization in an era where science and technology is at its peak To suppress the spread of COVID 19 many countries resorted to partial or full closure of their borders and restricted the movement of people Mandatory quarantine restricted labor mobility and workplace closure which later converted into supply shocks in the economy as these measures impaired the economy s production capacity disrupting supplies This later spilled over to the demand side as people were locked down in their homes and workers were laid off and lost income This disruption posed many new challenges for policymakers to formulate appropriate macroeconomic policy responses and also provided them the opportunity to ponder upon the preparedness of countries in terms of health facilities appropriately compensating human resources how to cushion immediate and severe economic shocks and how to maintain the livelihood of the society as a whole Changing World Economic Order in the Post Pandemic Period provides scientific knowledge of the current economic scenarios across the globe with a comprehensive overview of the pandemic and regional initiatives trends of trade and development and approaches to overcome obstacles of globalization and the impacts on global trade and economic development in light of the pandemic The chapters present tangible solutions and attainable perspectives for fighting a battle against the pandemic while keeping the morale of the people and economy high Highlighted topics include post pandemic economic development public policy in emergency situations socio economic impacts on enterprises risk governance and impacts of COVID 19 This book is ideally intended for university students researchers policymakers economic actors economists practitioners stakeholders government officials academicians and anyone interested in the impact of a pandemic on the global economy and how to deal with such issues in the future
