Societies and Cultures in World History: 1789 to the present Mark A. Kishlansky,1995 Societies and Cultures in World History ,1995 Societies and Cultures in World History Mark A. Kishlansky,Director Center for Medieval and Renaissance Studies Patrick J Geary,1994-08 Migrations in Medieval and Early Colonial India Vijaya Ramaswamy,2017-07-05 This book looks at movements of communities which formed the lower and middle rungs of society in medieval and early colonial India It presents migration mobility and memories from a specifically Indian perspective breaking away from previous Eurocentric studies The essays in the volume focus on labour peasant and craft migrations and in fleshing out the causes and trajectories taken by these communities they speak to each other by addressing similar issues as well as documenting varying responses to analogous situations A fascinating history of migrations of people from below the volume adopts a trans disciplinary approach and uses inscriptions official records and literary texts along with community narratives and folk tradition This will be of great interest to scholars and students of migration and diaspora studies medieval and modern South Asian history social anthropology and subaltern studies Mughal Warfare J.J.L. Gommans,2002-08-15 Mughal Warfare offers a much needed new survey of the military history of Mughal India during the age of imperial splendour from 1500 to 1700 Jos Gommans looks at warfare as an integrated aspect of pre colonial Indian society Based on a vast range of primary sources from Europe and India this thorough study explores the wider geo political culture Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1996-09 The World's History Since 1100 Howard Spodek,2000 For introductory level courses in World History A true exploration of world history this text presents world history through an analysis of eight chronological turning points seen through the prisms of eight different themes origins cities empires religion trade migrations revolutions and technology Focusing throughout on three major questions What do we know How do we know it What difference does it make it helps students make sense of the immensity of human historical experience the most significant activities accomplishments and failures throughout the world from earliest times to the present Rich in primary sources both written and visual and in data and interpretation it addresses how historians form debate and revise our historical understanding of the world shows the value of other disciplines in understanding history and helps students begin to assess their own place in the ongoing history of the world

Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair,C. H. Bleaney,Pablo García Suárez,2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies Cities and Solidarities Justin Colson,Arie van Steensel,2017-01-06 Cities and Solidarities charts the ways in which the study of individuals and places can revitalise our understanding of urban communities as dynamic interconnections of solidarities in medieval and early modern Europe This volume sheds new light on the socio economic conditions the formal and informal institutions and the strategies of individual town dwellers that explain the similarities and differences in the organisation and functioning of urban communities in pre modern Europe It considers how communities within cities and towns are constructed and reconstructed how interactions amongst members of differing groups created social and economic institutions and how urban communities reflected a sense of social cohesion In answering these questions the contributions combine theoretical frameworks with new digital methodologies in order to provoke further discussion into the fundamental nature of urban society in this key period of change The essays in this collection demonstrate the complexities of urban societies in pre modern Europe and will make fascinating reading for students and scholars of medieval and early modern urban history

Global Trade and Commercial Networks Tijn Vanneste,2015-10-06 At the heart of this study on cross cultural trade lies a concrete case study of a network of diamond merchants operating in the early eighteenth century All the traders examined in this study are outsiders an English Catholic in Antwerp Sephardic and Ashkenazi Jews in London and Amsterdam and French Huguenots in Lisbon A History of World Societies: From 1100 through the French Revolution

John P. McKay,Bennett D. Hill,John Buckler,1992 Island Stories David Reynolds,2020-03-24 This history of Britain set in a global context for our times offers a new perspective on how the rise and fall of an empire shaped modern European politics When the British voted to leave the European Union in 2016 the country s future was thrown into doubt So too was its past The story of British history is no longer a triumphalist narrative of expanding global empire nor one of ever closer integration with Europe What is it now In Island Stories historian David Reynolds offers a multi faceted new account of the last millennium to make sense of Britain s turbulent present With sharp analysis and vivid human detail he examines how fears of decline have shaped national identity probes Britain s changing relations with Europe considers the creation and erosion of the United Kingdom and reassesses the rise and fall of the British Empire Island Stories is essential reading for anyone interested in global history and politics in the era of Brexit

Resources in Education ,1991-04 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993 Wage Earners in India 1500-1900 Lucassen, Jan,Seshan, Radhika,2022-01-01 The study of wage levels and the purchasing power of wages is often viewed as a specialized academic topic of little concern to the wider public This is far from being the case as this book demonstrates The study of wages opens up vistas of the daily life of the working people of their standards of living and therefore addresses questions of larger economic developments and unequal power relationships in a region Wage Earners in India 1500 1900 Regional Approaches in an International Context brings together several scholars young and veteran to study new data and reinterpret older data from a fresh methodological perspective to locate India within global economic systems more effectively This book identifies previously unused and unpublished material for the study of wages underlines the importance of wages as a source of income for Indians from early times demonstrates the trends in wages over the period under review stresses the need to take women into account for the reconstruction of household income Regional Autonomy, Cultural Diversity and Differentiated Territorial Government Roberto Toniatti, Jens Woelk, 2017-04-21 Regional Autonomy Cultural Diversity and Differentiated Territorial Government assesses the current state of the international theory and practice of autonomy in order to pursue the possibility of regional self government in Tibet Initiated by a workshop and roundtable with political representatives from different autonomous regions including His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama this book brings together a group of distinguished international scholars to offer a much needed enquiry into solutions to the Tibetan quest for genuine autonomy Examining the Chinese framework of regional self government along with key international cases of autonomy in Europe North America and Asia the contributors to this volume offer a comprehensive context for the consideration of both Tibetan demands and Chinese worries Their insights will be invaluable to academics practitioners diplomats civil servants government representatives international organisations and NGOs interested in the theory and practice of autonomy as well as those concerned with the future of Tibet Gold: How it Shaped History Alan Ereira, 2024-11-30 Gold is not what we think It is usually discussed in the context of wealth and art but this book has a broader subject so fundamental that it has been largely unremarked Informed by a mass of recent discoveries and a South American indigenous perspective it offers a new way of understanding the history of civilization Gold has been coinage treasure and adornment But it has been much more as the hidden driver of wars and revolutions the rise and fall of empires and the transformation of societies As the sun traveled east to west across the sky gold incorruptible and corrupting flowed west to east hand to hand across the world That flow has brought empires to grow and collapse and driven plunder conquest and colonization It brought about wars and revolutions empowered new forms of arts and science and created the capitalist consumer economy that dominates us now All the gold people ever shaped still exists shining as new it can be mislaid but never decays Right from its first appearance on the west shore of the Black Sea long before the rise of Egypt and Mesopotamia gold crowned the first proto king Ever since it has been regarded as value incarnate with transcendental power The quantity we take has been increasing steadily for 6 500 years Now extraction accelerates Our gold mountain has doubled in the last fifty years Yet its price increases faster While the quantity doubled its buying power multiplied by six What does gold do that makes us want it so much As Alan Ereira reveals in this skilfully woven narrative gold is the hidden actor that shapes our story Early Modern Jewry David B. Ruderman, 2010-04-12 A compelling history of the early modern Jewish experience Early Modern Jewry boldly offers a new history of the early modern Jewish experience From Krakow and Venice to Amsterdam and Smyrna David Ruderman examines the historical and cultural factors unique to Jewish communities throughout Europe and how these distinctions played out amidst the rest of society Looking at how Jewish settlements in the early modern period were linked to one another in fascinating ways he shows how Jews were communicating with each other and were more aware of their economic social and religious connections than ever before Ruderman explores five crucial and powerful characteristics uniting Jewish communities a mobility leading to enhanced contacts between Jews of differing backgrounds traditions and languages as well as between Jews and non Jews a heightened sense of communal cohesion throughout all Jewish settlements that revealed the rising power of lay oligarchies a knowledge explosion brought about by the printing press the growing interest in Jewish books by Christian readers an expanded curriculum of Jewish learning and the entrance of Jewish elites into universities a crisis of rabbinic authority expressed through active messianism mystical prophecy radical enthusiasm and heresy and the blurring of religious identities impacting such groups as conversos Sabbateans individual converts to Christianity and Christian Hebraists In describing an early modern Jewish culture Early Modern Jewry reconstructs a distinct epoch in history and provides essential background for understanding the modern Jewish experience Which Degree? ,1990 Remember the Alamo Paul Walker,2015-07-14 An account of the famous battle of the Alamo which presents different points of view of the event
