shall not try While I was attached to the Malakand Field Force I wrote a series of letters for the London Daily Telegraph The favourable manner in which these letters were received encouraged me to attempt a more substantial work This volume is the result The original letters have been broken up and I have freely availed myself of all passages phrases and facts that seemed appropriate The views they contained have not been altered though several opinions and expressions which seemed mild in the invigorating atmosphere of a camp have been modified to suit the more temperate climate of peace I have to thank many gallant officers for the assistance they have given me in the collection of material They have all asked me not to mention their names but to accede to this request would be to rob the story of the Malakand Field Force of all its bravest deeds and finest characters The Story of the Malakand Field Force Winston S.
