Preventing and Reducing Juvenile Delinquency James C. Howell, 2003-02-24 This book aims to inform students about the latest research and the most promising and effective programs and for understanding preventing and controlling juvenile delinquency The book is geared to preparing students for a career in juvenile justice or related social service systems and becoming research or program development specialists The history of current juvenile justice system policies and practices are examined including the juvenile violence epidemic Key myths about juvenile violence and the ability of the juvenile justice system to handle modern day juvenile delinquents are critically examined Developmental theories of juvenile delinquency are applied to understanding how juvenile offender careers evolve Effective prevention and rehabilitation programs and what does not work are reviewed A comprehensive framework for building a continuum of effective programs is presented in Part III Meeting the Psychoeducational Needs of Minority Students Craig L. Frisby, 2013-02-06 Dr Frisby focuses a bright light on issues that often remain obscured in a fog of polemics deeply held convictions and genuine concern for the plight of minority students Meeting the Psychoeducational Needs of Minority Students cuts through this fog with intense sharp clear thinking and data driven conclusions Jeffrey P Braden PhD Professor of Psychology and Dean of the College of Humanities and Social Sciences North Carolina State University Going beyond superficial feel good or feel bad ideologies to probe what really makes a difference in meeting the needs of often underserved populations Craig Frisby provides a comprehensive rigorous well written and entertaining honest work that addresses the intersection of race ethnicity and education Betty

Henry PhD School Psychologist California School for the Blind Dr Frisby makes a perceptive and incisive assessment of much of the multicultural ideology currently propagated in professional psychology and education and directly confronts some of the major issues surrounding multiculturalism Unlike many other critiques that have been proffered over the last few decades however Meeting the Psychoeducational Needs of Minority Students also provides many concrete solutions for how to begin changing the current milieu A Alexander Beaujean PhD Associate Professor Baylor University A practical research based guide to facilitating positive educational outcomes for racial ethnic and language minority students This timely book is written from the perspective of contemporary school psychology for a variety of school personnel including school psychologists teachers guidance counselors and administrators with coverage of The problem of quack multiculturalism Home and family Context for school learning General cognitive ability learning and instruction Testing and assessment School discipline and behavior management Crime delinquency and gangs School district resources

Reducing School Shootings William H. Jeynes, 2021-02-01 This book calls for a multidimensional and comprehensive approach to reduce the number of school shootings rather than the simplistic unidimensional strategy that is commonly advocated Based on meta analyses examining which variables are most often related to positive changes in violent student behavior it also integrates other research and historical trends in order to formulate recommendations regarding how to reduce school shootings The topic of school shootings is one of the most vital issues in society today because 1 schools should be the safest places on Earth for children 2 if students do not feel safe they are not going to learn very well in school and 3 it is of such great concern to parents and society at large as evinced by the degree of news coverage that school shooting incidents receive Sadly despite the gravity of the problem many people tend to either respond in an emotional way or propose simplistic solutions Gun control legislation alone will not solve the problem instead it calls for a multi disciplinary and multifaceted approach involving parents teachers schools and healthcare This book investigates the status quo goals and solutions pursuing a fact based approach This book is of special interest to the academic community national leaders and other policymakers It is also suitable for courses on education psychology sociology criminal justice and other areas of law It will also appeal to the general audience
