Strange Sea Tales Along the California Coast Claudine Burnett, 2000 African Americans in Long Beach and Southern California: a History Claudine Burnett, 2021-03-09 Racial discrimination and unrest are intertwined with the history of Long Beach and Southern California in Ms Burnett's latest book African Americans in Long Beach and Southern California begins in the 1800s and continues to 1970 reaching into later years to describe what that history has led to today Ms Burnett spent over five years researching recently digitized African American newspapers which has allowed her access to the black perspective on issues rarely written about in the white press or by other authors Personal stories legislation Southland history and possible solutions to decades old problems are presented making for an interesting and informative read It is a unique work sure to open the eyes of many Murderous Intent? Claudine Burnett, 2009-04 Claudine Burnett has now written another book sure to be savored by those interested in Southern California history Concentrating on a span of years covering the 1880s to 1920 Ms Burnett has uncovered fascinating true stories of death and murder Read about The bandit Sylvestro Morales who robbed and murdered his way through the Southland in 1889 and his capture at the Rancho Los Alamitos Violence and death among the Basque and Mexican shepherders and sugar beet workers of Southern California Long Beach City Trustees hung in effigy and how their attempt to get rid of a local saloon in 1896 brought about the death of the city How the murder of a Long Beach policeman in 1912 led to additional tragedy and sorrow but also brought about the adoption of modern criminal investigation The kidnapping and torture of a Long Beach youth in 1916 by notorious insane murderer Harry Thaw whose killing of famed architect Stanford White made headlines around the world Learn the origin of The towns of Long Beach and Los Alamitos The Pacific Electric Red Car and jitney transport systems The Long Beach Municipal Band and Long Beach Police Department Meet Lew is the Light who believed he had a special delivery service to God Whistling Davis who refused to bury his dead daughter Cantankerous Old Man Ranous killed and buried in a pile of manure W L Jennings killed by a cat The spirits of murder victims who refused to rest Pete Labourdette a notorious Los Alamitos saloon keeper and the murders he worked to cover up These are but a few examples from a book you won't want to put down until the very end Haunted Long Beach 2 Claudine Burnett, 2010-08-25 Claudine Burnett author of popular Murderous Intent and Strange Sea Tales Along the Southern California Coast has at last revised and updated the long out of print Haunted Long Beach New stories and updates have come her way since the original Haunted Long Beach was published in 1996 Now readers can rediscover the ghostly side of one of America's finest cities haunted houses phantom airplanes cemetery apparitions and ghosts of the Queen Mary come alive in these true stories of eerie happenings in Long Beach California Gathered from historical files and personal experiences Ms Burnett has researched these stories extensively to try to find historical evidence as to their cause All in all these ghostly tales are sure to entertain both visitors and residents alike Amador City: A Haunting History Claudine Burnett, 2024-05-23 Amador City is a small Gold Rush era town in

Amador County which has more dead than living The 3 square mile hamlet of just 201 living souls is the smallest incorporated city in California It was once the center of a thriving mining industry with over 1000 residents The town has seen its population ebb and flow along with mining It has experienced several fires and frequent deaths It is a city with much history lying buried along with many who once called it home It is a city where fortunes were made There was Alvinza Hayward who consulted mediums before staking a mining claim and well known individuals such as Leland Stanford and George Hearst However there were many who never found the elusive gold that evaded them in life Perhaps their spirits are responsible for the orbs of light seen flashing through Amador City's buildings and the ethereal voices still heard echoing along the banks of Amador Creek Some spirits have been seen in physical form others seemingly expressing themselves through moving objects cold spots and unexplained noises Then there are those wandering souls still seeking a resolution to their murder restless miners whose deaths could have been avoided and suicides who ended their lives abruptly It is a city where the past still haunts the present Read and explore tales of the dead and more forgotten byways neighboring towns that have disappeared robberies saloon brawls and how 1872 mining claim laws are still in effect and how you too may become rich by becoming a present day gold miner

Fighting Fear Claudine Burnett, 2014-06-30 The war in Europe had resounding effects worldwide but the clouds darkened over Long Beach much earlier than the war clouds appeared over Europe In the days of Prohibition Long Beach waged battles against illegal bootlegging gambling and political corruption When Prohibition ended in 1933 it was hoped that the city could return to what it once was a decent law abiding town But that was not to be too many new people had moved into the area brought there by the growth of the harbor and the discovery of oil It was hard to tell who was a good cop and who was bad and it was also difficult to tell which of the politicians running the city had hands that were dirty As the federal government looked at America's west coast they saw an intense need for a stronger military presence if the U S ever had to protect its Pacific shores For Long Beach this was good news The city had its harbor and airport both already in use by the military with plenty of available land for expansion Long Beach was about to enter its greatest period of growth and development since oil was discovered in 1921 It didn't take a visionary to see that Long Beach would be a prime target for an enemy attack The eastern portion of the city housed numerous shipyards and a Navy base to the north there was Douglas Aircraft Company and the Army air base at the Municipal Airport to the east was the Los Alamitos Naval Air Station and the Seal Beach Naval Weapons Depot In the middle of Long Beach were countless oil wells fueling the ships planes and other equipment needed to fight a war During the 1940s hordes of people escaping the effects of the Great Depression flooded into Long Beach looking for jobs in the shipyards oil industry and aircraft factories which had sprung up as the war in Europe intensified The newcomers did not seriously consider the fact that Long Beach would be a prime target if America entered the war What they needed was a job and Long Beach was where to find one After Pearl Harbor the fear set in Long Beach would be a prime target for a Japanese attack There was also a second fear that gambling interests and political corruption would take over the city Prohibition Madness Claudine Burnett,2013-02-06 Throughout America cocktail parties sparkled defiantly through the dreaded first minutes of January 20 1920 With morning would come the official start of Prohibition It was easy however to keep the party going in Long Beach California Though Long Beach had been dry throughout most of its history illegal liquor distribution throughout the city was already perfected by the time the 18th Amendment banning the sale of most alcoholic beverages became law Already in place were underground booze operations secretive speakeasies and bootlegging the perfect staging ground for crime corruption AND murder READ ABOUT Oil The one discovery that made Long Beach different from the rest of 1920 s and 30 s America and would change the life of the city in many unforeseen ways Good vs Evil Murders gun battles lawlessness the city was a battleground between the influences of good and evil Involved in the battle was the Ku Klux Klan Communists rum runners bootleggers gangsters and corrupt politicians MEET Hollywood celebrities William Desmond Taylor Fatty Arbuckle and other well known figures who ended up dead or their careers ruined because of rampant corruption and illicit booze Gangsters such as Al Capone s henchman Ralph Sheldon who gunned down Long Beach policeman William Waggoner and got away with it Bootleggers like Thomas Johnstone murdered by his wife when he refused to give up his nefarious profession Oil swindlers many influenced by C C Julian and his Ponzi scheme that bilked thousands out of their life savings Murderers such as Bluebeard Watson who killed most of his 15 wives until one of them became suspicious These are just a few of the individuals and matters discussed in this eye opening account of Long Beach and Southern California during the 1920 s and 30 s The Red Scare, Ufos & Elvis Claudine Burnett,2018-06-30 The baby boomer generation 1946-1964 grew up in a time of dramatic social change Their experiences in the Cold War were very different from those of their parents While adults perceived communism as a threat to the American way of life to their health and well being and those of their families their children learned to fear the loss of a future they could grow into and inhabit These kids of the atomic age wondered if they might be the last children on earth They were raised on civil defense films tales of nuclear annihilation and a world taken over by communism America had entered the atomic age Flying saucers were big news communism appeared rampant a war in Korea erupted teens turned to murderers and there was fear the world might end It was also a time of transition Rock n roll entered the scene space flight became a reality and the public learned not to blindly accept what the government told them especially when it came to atomic radiation and waste The Pacific Squab and Poultry Farm Ivy

Harnett,2023-07-09 In 1889 during the Great Depression of British Agriculture the Harnett farm in Kent England was suffering financially With Britain s refusal to tax grain imports their farm could no longer support a family of eleven children Ernest and Julia Harnett had a hard decision to make either leave their beloved England or give up six of their youngest children It was something they would not do A letter from a friend who had moved to Southern California wrote of an alcohol free religious community with good farm land They made up their minds They would move to the American Colony created a few years earlier by a fellow Englishman William Willmore There they would create a new life on the Pacific Squab and Poultry Farm Follow their journey across the Atlantic and explore their new home an area called Burnett close to Signal Hill which would eventually become part of Long Beach California Get to know each of the members of the Harnett family through the eyes of Ivy Harnett the first of three children to be born in America There is Jane Bessie a teacher who left an indelible mark on California history Norah and Josie who found love and marriage in faraway Alaska Anne the artist Kathleen the top student graduate at UC Berkley Ethel Helen Jack the engineer Tom and his milling company Edward and Frank Long Beach civil servants who contributed much to the growth of the city Learn of the tragic deaths of Geoffrey Caroline and the patriarch of the family Ernest Harnett struck by a hit and run driver a few weeks after his daughter Jane s death This true story is sure to entertain taking readers to a past that once was and a family who refused to leave any child behind

Animal Tales (Some a Little Fishy) Claudine Burnett,2022-05-11 Learn about An opossum who enjoyed X rated movies A canine thief with an appetite for eggs A man who lost out on 38 000 in valuable pearls because he liked his oysters cooked instead of raw Strange events and creatures off the California coast A recipe for Pius IV s favorite dish frog livers A statewide event where California school children were asked to kill as many ground squirrels as possible verifying their kills by bringing the tails to school These are but a few of the stories largely centered around Long Beach California which have appeared over the past 130 years Most have remained forgotten until now How much is true and how much tongue in cheek I will leave up to the reader to decide In any case they are they are fun humorous and sure to entertain Died in Long Beach Claudine Burnett,2016-06-25 Long Beach was one of the many Southern California cities that grew out of the railroad fare wars of the late 1880s It was built by men and women who toiled to make it the great metropolis it is today These are the tales of those who died or are buried in Long Beach Some were illustrious in their time others just common folk with interesting stories to tell Politicians city founders visitors influenza victims Civil War veterans and accident victims are all discussed here as well as the hospitals doctors undertakers and others who cared for the dead and dying But what makes Long Beachs Sunnyside and Municipal cemeteries different from all others is the question of whether the bodies said to be there still remain The cemetery wars of the 1920s erupted when oil was discovered on Signal Hill Oil and other debris ran over the graves and the promised mausoleum that many had already paid for was cast aside in favor of black gold People were angry barricading themselves by the cemeteries gates to prevent oil rigs from getting to the mausoleum site Slant drilling caused headstones and markers to sink into the ground graves were covered by the run off debris from the oil fields above Many bodies were moved their headstones left behind with haphazard records kept of where the corpses were relocated It would take a 10 year court case to determine if the dead still had rights In this book you will learn about the fascinating history of Long Beachs unique cemeteries the stories of those said to be buried in them and whether Long Beachs cities of the dead may be haunted by angry souls whose final abode did not allow them to rest in peace Soaring Skyward

Claudine Burnett, 2011-11-04 Flying was a perilous adventure with death only a small breath away Many lost their lives in pursuit of their dream and have remained relatively forgotten until now italics until now Aviation fever struck young and old alike especially after the four Dominguez Air Meets held in Southern California between 1910 1913 It inspired many such as the Birnie and French brothers Charles Day and Glenn Martin to build their own air ships For others like Frank Champion Long Beachs first airman it meant learning from the best traveling to London England to study with Louis Bleriot and going on to teach others such as Long Beach Airport founder Earl Daugherty to fly There were also daring women Tiny and Ethel Broadwick who parachuted out of airplanes when many men refused to do so because they considered it too dangerous Gladys ODonnell instrumental in founding the Womens Air Derby World War II ferrying pilots led by Barbara Erickson London whose service to America was not recognized until 1977 Dianna Bixby and Joan Merriam Smith trying to complete Amelia Earharts dream of circumnavigating the globe Soaring Skyward italics for title introduces remarkable men and women who embraced the dangers and challenges of flight It also tells the story of the Long Beach Municipal Airport the center of much of Southern Californias aviation history The early days of ballooning air circuses parachute jumps barnstorming air meets forgotten military sites and much more are all explored in this well documented look into the past and future of aviation in Southern California After twenty years of extensive research Ms Burnetts book is sure to open up new sources of information for aviation and history enthusiasts and most definitely shed additional light on the past

Surfing Newport Beach Claudine Burnett, Paul Burnett, 2013-07-16 Corona del Mar was once California s premier surfing spot holding the sport s first Pacific Coast competition in 1928 Attempts to tame Corona and to make the Newport Beach harbor mouth safe for watercraft drastically altered board riding destroying the great wave making machine of Corona and creating the surf giant of today known as the Wedge Read about Newport before World War II experience the Great Rescue of 1925 by Duke Kahanamoku and others the rum runners of Balboa and the evolution of Newport Bay Pioneering surfers such as George Freeth Tom Blake the Vultee brothers and Pete Peterson helped make a name for the city in surf culture Authors Claudine Burnett and her surfer husband Paul have delved deeply into the past sharing stories that will give readers never before revealed facts not only about surfing but Newport Beach and Corona del Mar history as well
