Systems of Higher Education in Twelve Countries Nell Eurich, 1981 Case study type description of higher education given for each country as it relates to the rest of the economy etc of that country Systems of Higher Education in Twelve Countries Nell Eurich, 1981 Case study type description of higher education given for each country as it relates to the rest of the economy etc of that country Routledge Library Editions: Education Mini-Set G Higher & Adult Education 11 vol set Various, 2021-07-14 Mini set G Higher and Adult Education re issues 11 volumes originally published between 1974 and 1992 They discuss and analyze adult education from both theoretical and practical standpoints and look at the challenges facing adult education during the 1970s and 80s as well as examining the history of higher adult education in the UK The mini set includes one volume which although previously available with another publisher and out of print for some years is now available for the first time from Routledge International Higher Education Volume 2 Philip Altbach, 2014 This encyclopedia is the result of a highly selective enterprise that provides a careful selection of key topics in essays written by top scholars in their fields Comprehensive and in depth coverage of a limited number of countries regions and themes is provided The essays not only feature statistical and factual information but significant interpretation of those facts and figures The chapters on themes and topics are both analytic and interpretative and deal with the most important topics relevant to higher education everywhere More than a compendium of facts and figures the encyclop Perspectives on Higher Education Burton R. Clark, 2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1984 Universalization of Higher Education Ram Mohan, 2004 In Indian context Non-University Higher Education in Europe James S. Taylor, José Brites Ferreira, Maria de Lourdes Machado, Rui Santiago, 2008-06-01 Today a substantial portion of higher education is provided outside of the traditional universities in non university institutions with a multitude of varied characteristics In recent decades higher education systems have been subjected to many changes and reforms throughout the world One of the most important was undoubtedly the expansion of higher education in the second half of the last century from an elite system to one for the masses While institutions of higher learning have been in existence for approximately 1 000 years this exponential growth has been much more recent This movement toward mass higher education has created substantial national impacts on the development of the systems of higher education While common denominators of change and adaptation can be identified globally there remain important differences from country to country There are many factors challenging higher education today and in the foreseeable future In one form or another these issues and trends can be seen in higher education systems throughout the world They include chronic underfunding marketisation and competition alternative providers massification internationalisation governance leadership strategic management accountability accreditation and social relevance Another key factor for many countries especially in Europe and the focus of this book is the current and future status of the higher education systems that differentiate the university and non university sectors

Reclaiming Public Universities Manisha Priyam, 2022-04-25 This book explores the nature of public universities and higher education reforms in emerging economies with a focus on India South Africa and Brazil Drawing on context based case studies the essays in the volume highlight the state of public universities amongst the developing world with their shared colonial past and social caste and race inequalities Based on comparative and multidisciplinary studies the book provides a critical account of the policy reforms and changes on account of globalization and markets in higher education in public universities of the Global South regions The chapters also compare methodological approaches to university reform and restructuring of public universities and higher education systems in USA Australia the European Union and India and examine the California model the Bologna process the Melbourne model the University of Delhi reforms and engage critically with the New Public Management inspired reform policies The book further lays the groundwork for understanding massification in a contextual way and the possibilities for expansion of scale of mass higher education through public provision With its empirical findings and social theory analyses by global experts the volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of education higher education sociology and social anthropology development studies public policy and administration politics political economy and Global South studies It will also be useful to educationists policymakers and civil society organizations

The University and the Teachers Harry Judge, Michel Lemosse, Lynn Paine, Michael Sedlak, 1994-01-01 Here is a book for our times a study in three countries of the relationship between teacher education and the universities An Englishman looks at France a Frenchman at the USA and two Americans at England with the whole introduced and rounded off by Harry Judge who was also the interlocutor of France It is a notable addition to the Oxford Studies in Comparative Education John Tomlinson Director of the Institute of Education University of Warwick The Times Educational Supplement this is an outstanding book on several levels it is a worthwhile read for audiences well beyond those directly involved in teacher education It will be of particular interest to researchers and students of comparative education At a time when politicians seem bent on importing educational practices from other countries it reminds us that there are no easy lessons to be learnt through international comparisons and that we cannot suppose that what is identified as good practice in one country can easily be imported elsewhere without taking into account the cultural context within which it is successful Marilyn Osborn University of Bristol Comparative Education The book is beautifully and engagingly written enlivened by the authors efforts to make sense of that which is foreign to their personal educational experiences The narratives are rich in detail and insights about the forms of teacher education and the cultural logic of their suitability The chapters provoke thought experiments of a kind that are suggestive of outcomes for university based teacher education if reforms currently proposed in one nation prove to be similar to long standing practices in the others Frank B Murray University of Delaware Comparative Education Review The work recorded in this book was undertaken over four years with support from the Spencer Foundation of Chicago and under the direction of Harry Judge of the University of Oxford Michel Lemosse teaches at the University of Nice and Lynn Paine Michael Sedlak at Michigan State University Routledge Library Editions: Education in Asia Various, 2021-07-14 This set of reissued books examines education in Asia from a variety of different angles From the westernisation of early twentieth century Chinese education to the impact of the Communist revolution to education and society in Korea to Asian women s experiences of education this set collects some key texts by a range of original thinkers
