Memoir of Two Cities Lynn Davis,2025-03-07 From revelry at socials to reverence at religious sites a four day walk and a six day war and so much in between the author takes the reader along on her two year journey through the Holy Land vividly documented in this new memoir Lynn was twenty three when she changed her life's direction and left Hartford Connecticut for Tel Aviv Israel Her new life afterward was not always easy as she straddled two worlds each at times pulling her in opposite directions Over five decades later she records those experiences in A Memoir of Two Cities Hartford and Tel Aviv Close to two hundred letters sent home create the foundation for this memoir as well as travel logs notes research papers films photographs and slides Despite crushing homesickness at times the two years of Lynn's tour recorded in this narrative were those of rediscovering country family and herself The author records a journey of self discovery revealing positive as well as not so flattering traits all recorded with candor Friends working at the embassy with her become a surrogate family and she narrates her interaction with them with love The author offers the reader an introduction to the Middle East and its environs including the ancient towns of Bethlehem Nazareth Capernaum and Jerusalem These visits reinforce her study of Jesus as a historical figure Lynn tests herself physically and mentally in her first year 1966 with an iconic walk and in her second year 1967 working at the embassy day and night through a harrowing Israeli Arab war and recounts the latter two incidents in focused detail The author prefers the more narrow and focused memoir genre that enables her to compartmentalize her life in this work month by month All she learns and experiences during the two years in Israel lays the foundation for her to assimilate herself with her memories back into the United States and also for future study for advanced
