Obedience from First to Last Edmund Fong, 2020-03-18 Obedience from First to Last explores the theological significance of the obedience of Jesus Christ in Karl Barth's theology. It does this via a threefold consideration of first the nature of Jesus incarnate obedience, second the relation of that obedience to the obedience of the second triune person of the eternal Son, and third the effects Jesus' obedience has on our own obedience. Barth not only affirms the pivotal role Jesus' obedience has within the economy of salvation but by equating that obedience with that of the eternal Son, Barth gives Jesus' obedience a pre-eminent place within the immanent being of Godself. The obedience of Jesus Christ is seen to have a co-participatory role in God's determination of his own divine being that arises from the primordial act of divine election. This notion bears on our understanding of freedom and obedience as divine freedom is expressed in divine obedience so it is with human freedom and human obedience.

Struggling with God Simon D Podmore, 2013-10-31 Invoking the biblical motif of Jacob's struggle with the Face of God (Genesis 32), Simon D Podmore undertakes a constructive theological account of spiritual trial (tentatio), known in German mystical and Lutheran tradition as Anfechtung, in relation to enduring questions of the otherness and hiddenness of God and the self, the problem of suffering and evil, the freedom of Spirit and the anxious relationship between temptation and ordeal, fear and desire. This book traces a genealogy of spiritual trial from medieval German mystical theology through Lutheran and Pietistic thought (Tauler, Luther, Arndt, Boehme) and reconstructs Kierkegaard's innovative yet under-examined recovery of the category Anfægtelse (a Danish cognate for Anfechtung) within the modern context of the spiritless decline of Christendom. Developing the relationship between struggle (Anfechtung) and release (Gelassenheit), Podmore proposes a Kierkegaardian theology of spiritual trial which elaborates the kenosis of the self before God in terms of Spirit's restless longing to rest transparently in God. Offering an original rehabilitation of the temptation of spiritual trial, this book strives for a renewed theological hermeneutic which speaks to the enduring human struggle to realise the unchanging love of God in the face of spiritual darkness.
