The Sefirot David Y. Shulman, 1996-05 The Jewish mystical tradition teaches that in order to create the many planes of being that culminated in our world God brought into being ten sefirot or vessels These sefirot consecutively filtered and continue to filter God's spiritual light so that universes separate from Him were able to emerge It is the belief of Kabbalists that every person object and process in the world works through the energies of the sefirot and every Jewish practice and holiday is a conductor that allows these energies to flow Furthermore because people contain analogues of the sefirot within themselves they can intuit the spiritual truth of the upper worlds Consequently man's actions acts of goodness and of religious meaning such as keeping the Sabbath can influence the heavenly sefirot and draw down their positive energy This analogy between the sefirot and one's personal manner of relating to God in a profound and deeply felt way is a theme discussed at length in the Breslov chasidic literature particularly so in Likkutei Halachot an eight volume collection of essays by Rabbi Nossan of Nemirov an esteemed student of Rabbi Nachman of Bratslav This work parallels the sixteenth century collection of Jewish law known as the Shulchan Aruch But whereas that work the foundation of modern halachic practice is a practical manual Likkutei Halachot uses the halachah as a takeoff point for brilliant expositions of Breslov chasidism It is Likkutei Halachot that forms the basis of Y David Shulman's The Sefirot Ten Emanations of Divine Power
