

A photograph of an adult American Robin and two of its chicks in a nest. The adult bird is on the left, facing right, with its beak open as if feeding. It has a dark brown head and back, and a reddish-brown breast. The two chicks are in the center and right, also with their beaks open. They are covered in dark, fuzzy down. The nest is made of dry straw and is situated among green leafy plants. The text 'The American Robin' and the author's name 'Len Eisner' are in the top right corner.
