Encounters Lisa Trever,2022-01-11 Moche murals of northern Peru represent one of the great yet still largely unknown artistic traditions of the ancient Americas Created in an era without written scripts these murals are key to understandings of Moche history society and culture In this first comprehensive study on the subject Lisa Trever develops an interdisciplinary methodology of archaeo art history to examine how ancient histories of art can be written without texts boldly inverting the typical relationship of art to archaeology Trever argues that early coastal artistic traditions cannot be reduced uncritically to interpretations based in much later Inca histories of the Andean highlands Instead the author seeks the origins of Moche mural art and its emphasis on figuration in the deep past of the Pacific coast of South America Image Encounters shows how formal transformations in Moche mural art before and after the seventh century were part of broader changes to the work that images were made to perform at Huacas de Moche El Brujo Pa amarca and elsewhere in an increasingly complex social and political world In doing so this book reveals alternative evidentiary foundations for histories of art and visual experience

Making Senses of the Past Jo Day,2013-03-19 Since the nineteenth century museums have kept their artifacts in glass cases to better preserve them and drawings and photographs have become standard ways of presenting the past These practices have led to an archaeology dominated by visual description even though human interaction with the surrounding world involves the whole body and all of its senses In the past few years sensory archaeology has become more prominent and Making Senses of the Past is one of the first collected volumes on this subject This book presents cutting edge research on new theoretical issues The essays presented here take readers on a multisensory journey around the world and across time In ancient Peru a site provides sensory surprises as voices resound beneath the ground and hidden carvings slowly reveal their secrets In Canada and New Zealand the flicker of reflected light from a lake dances on the faces of painted rocks and may have influenced when and why the pigment was applied In Mesopotamia vessels for foodstuffs build a picture of a past cuisine that encompasses taste and social activity in the building of communities While perfume and flowers are examined in various cultures in the chamber tombs of ancient Roman Palestine we are reminded that not all smells are pleasant Making Senses of the Past explores alternative ways to perceive past societies and offers a new way of wiring archaeology that incorporates the senses Christian History, Volume 2 Thomas S. Kidd,2024-09-01 Thomas S Kidd presents a global history of the Christian church in the modern age Christian History Volume 2 From the Reformation to the Present provides a composite picture of important influential and representative Christian beliefs thinkers activists trends and practices from about 1500 to the present day In a highly readable style Kidd covers the events and figures from the Reformation the Great Awakenings higher criticism and the culture wars of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries This volume also covers the global nature of God s church by examining historical global traditions as well as the recent the demographic shift of active Christian communities to the global South In addition to the major theologians movements and events of the period Kidd highlights the everyday Christian experience through the centuries including accounts of ordinary men and women who experienced conversion lived sacrificially for the gospel or endured persecution A lively engaging and readable text Christian History Volume 2 From the Reformation to the Present will become a staple text for students and professors alike William Stimpson and the Golden Age of American Natural History Ronald Scott Vasile,2018-06-19

William Stimpson was at the forefront of the American natural history community in the latter half of the nineteenth century Stimpson displayed an early affinity for the sea and natural history and after completing an apprenticeship with famed naturalist Louis Agassiz he became one of the first professionally trained naturalists in the United States In 1852 twenty year old Stimpson was appointed naturalist of the United States North Pacific Exploring Expedition where he collected and classified hundreds of marine animals Upon his return he joined renowned naturalist Spencer F Baird at the Smithsonian Institution to create its department of invertebrate zoology He also founded and led the irreverent and fun loving Megatherium Club which included many notable naturalists In 1865 Stimpson focused on turning the Chicago Academy of Sciences into one of the largest and most important museums in the country Tragically the museum was destroyed in the Great Chicago Fire of 1871 and Stimpson died of tuberculosis soon after before he could restore his scientific legacy This first ever biography of William Stimpson situates his work in the context of his time As one of few to collaborate with both Agassiz and Baird Stimpson s life provides insight into the men who shaped a generation of naturalists the last before intense specialization caused naturalists to give way to biologists Historians of science and general readers interested in biographies science and history will enjoy this compelling biography Imagined Empires Eric Wertheimer,1999 A 1999 study of the influence of South American culture on early American culture in particular literature
