Derek Jarman was the most important independent filmmaker in England during the 1980s Using emblems and symbols in associative contexts rather than conventional cause and effect narrative he created films noteworthy for their lyricism and poetic feeling and for their exploration of the gay experience His style of filmmaking also links Jarman with other prominent directors of lyric film including Pier Paolo Pasolini Andrei Tarkovsky Jean Cocteau and Jean Genet This pathfinding book places Derek Jarman in the tradition of lyric film and offers incisive readings of all eleven of his feature length films from Sebastiane to Blue Steven Dillon looks at Jarman and other directors working in a similar vein to establish how lyric films are composed through the use of visual imagery and actual poetry He then traces Jarman's use of imagery notably mirrors and the sea in his films and discusses in detail the relationship between cinematic representations and sexual identity This insightful reading of Jarman's work helps us better understand how films such as The Last of England and The Garden can be said to cohere and mean without being reduced to clear messages Above all Dillon's book reveals how truly beautiful and brilliant Jarman's movies are

Derek Jarman Michael Charlesworth, 2011-11-15 Derek Jarman 1942-94 is known as one of Europe's greatest independent film makers his films call into question and reconsider the nature of filmmaking itself But as Michael Charlesworth shows in this new biography Jarman was also a painter writer gardener set designer and an influential campaigner for gay rights and other social causes Charlesworth discusses the entire diverse range of Jarman's works in order to provide a thorough portrait from childhood to his untimely death Charlesworth is the first scholar to properly integrate Jarman's paintings and writings with his films demonstrating the strong connections between his varied areas of artistic practice. He also draws invaluable insights from Jarman's extraordinary series of journals that offer a look into the nature of the society in which he lived as well as his own creative process. And through the thoughts and memories of Jarman's friends Charlesworth reveals how Jarman was an important voice on behalf of many one who espoused love and friendship while fearlessly campaigning for the virtues and the value of art in an often hostile and unappreciative political and social atmosphere. Fresh in its conclusions and engaging in style, Derek Jarman is an accessible and thought provoking analysis of Jarman's phenomenal creativity and a perfect complement to Jarman's works.

The Films of Derek Jarman William Pencak, 2002-11-05. Derek Jarman's films explore the possibilities and limitations of same sex love and self expression during various historical eras ranging from ancient Egypt to present times. His work covers a millennium of sexual repression and efforts to escape it. Jarman provides us with a cinematic history of people whose homoerotic passions had a major impact on western civilization in religion, art, politics, philosophy and war. This book provides background information on each of Jarman's fifteen scripts and films. The chapters are program notes to his films from a historical perspective. An interpretation of Jarman's intentions gleaned from the director's writings and works about him is also provided. This work reveals Jarman's importance as a keen student of the limits of historical knowledge and delineates the role of history in inspiring change or preserving inertia in the present struggle against homophobia.

The Magicians Discovered, Volume 1 John S. Madziarczyk, 2016-04-01. In 1665 an anonymous treatise was added to a book skeptical of witchcraft. That book, The Discoverie of Witchcraft, compiled by Reginald Scot and published in 1584, defended those accused of witchcraft. It also included so many examples of rituals and charms that it became popular with magical practitioners themselves. Although The Discoverie has since been reprinted several times, the anonymous material has not been available for over a hundred years. This material features a combination of ceremonial magic, Paracelsian thought, pagan folk rituals and spirits from John Dee's A True Faithful Relation all mixed into a synthetic whole. The Magicians Discovered Volume I is an analysis of who the authors of the anonymous material were, what their worldview was and what their motivations may have been in assembling and inserting the anonymous material.

Conversations with Angels J. Raymond, 2011-08-09. Based on refractions of earlier beliefs, modern angels at once terrible and comforting, frighteningly other and reassuringly beneficent, have acquired a powerful symbolic value. This interdisciplinary study looks at how humans conversed with angels in medieval and early modern Europe and how they explained and represented these conversations.

Derek Jarman Rowland Wymer, 2019-01-04. This book gives detailed and original critical readings of all eleven of Derek Jarman's feature length films, arguing that he occupies a major and influential place in European and world cinema rather than merely being a cult figure. It places particular emphasis on the importance of Renaissance art and literature for Jarman and emphasises his interest in Jungian psychology. Wymer shows how Jarman used his films to take his audience with him on an inner journey in search of the self.

whilst remaining fully aware of the dangers of such a journey Making substantial use of Jarman's unpublished papers as well as all his published works Wymer argues that the films are orientated towards a much wider audience than is often supposed They are addressed to anyone of whatever gender or sexuality who is prepared to go on a journey in search of him or her self and to become Jarman's accomplice in the dream world of the soul Shakespeare's Global Sonnets Jane Kingsley-Smith, W. responds to current multicultural debates over the value of theory and the aim of artistic practice Ruins and Resilience Karel Doing, 2024-07-23 Experimental film practice from an international and transdisciplinary perspective Karel Doing is an experimental filmmaker and researcher who has worked across the globe with fellow artists and filmmakers creating a body of work that is difficult to pinpoint with a simple catchphrase In Ruins and Resilience he weaves autobiographical elements and critical reviews together with his wide ranging interdisciplinary approach reflecting on his own practice by positioning key works within the context of a vibrant experimental film scene in Europe North and South America and Asia Doing demonstrates how experimental filmmakers have continued to renew their practice despite the almost total demise of analog motion picture film and the constant neglect of this art form by institutions and critics Written in a fluent and accessible style the book looks into the connections between the work of groundbreaking artists within the field and subjects such as transgression improvisation collectivity materiality phenomenology and perception Specifically intersections with music and sound are investigated appealing to the idea of the cross modal brain the ability to perceive sounds and images in an integrated way Instead of looking again at the golden era of experimental film the book starts in the 1980s showing how this art form has never ceased to surprise and inspire The author's hands on engagement with the medium is formational for his more theoretical approach and writing making the book a highly original contribution in the field that is informative and inspiring for academic and practitioners alike

A History of Artists' Film and Video in Britain David Curtis, 2019-07-25 In recent years the use of film and video by British artists has come to widespread public attention Jeremy Deller Douglas Gordon Steve McQueen and Gillian Wearing all won the Turner Prize in 2004 1996 1999 and 1997 respectively for work made on video This fin de siècle explosion of activity represents the culmination of a long history of work by less well known artists and experimental film makers Ever since the invention of film in the 1890s artists have been attracted to the possibilities of working with moving images whether in pursuit of visual poetry the exploration of the art form's technical challenges the hope of political impact or the desire to re invigorate such time honoured subjects as portraiture and landscape Their work represents an alternative history to that of commercial cinema in Britain a tradition that has been only intermittently written about until now This major new book is the first comprehensive history of artists film and video in Britain Structured in two parts Institutions and Artists and Movements it considers the work of some 300 artists including Kenneth Macpherson Basil Wright Len Lye Humphrey Jennings Margaret Tait Jeff Keen Carolee Schneemann Yoko Ono Malcolm Le Grice Peter Gidal William Raban Chris Welsby David Hall Tamara Krikorian Sally Potter Guy Sherwin Lis Rhodes Derek Jarman David Larcher Steve Dwoskin James Scott Peter Wollen and Laura Mulvey Peter Greenaway Patrick Keiller John Smith Andrew Stones Jaki Irvine Tracy Emin Dryden Goodwin and Stephanie Smith and Ed Stewart Written by the leading authority in the field A History of Artists Film and Video in Britain 1897 2004 brings to light the range and diversity of British artists work in these mediums as well as the artist run organisations that have supported the art form's development In so doing it greatly enlarges the scope of any understanding of British cinema and demonstrates the crucial importance of the moving image to British art history Caravaggio Leo Bersani, Ulysse Dutoit, 2021-03-25 Caravaggio 1986 Derek Jarman's portrait of the Italian Baroque artist shows the painter at work with models drawn from Rome's homeless and prostitutes and his relationship with two very different lovers Ranuccio played by Sean Bean and Lena played by Tilda Swinton It is probably the closest Derek Jarman came to a mainstream film And yet the film is a uniquely complex and lucid treatment of Jarman's major concerns violence history homosexuality and the relation between film and painting In particular according to Leo Bersani and Ulysse Dutoit Caravaggio is unlike Jarman's other work in avoiding a sentimentalising of gay relationships and in making no neat distinction between the exercise and the suffering of violence Film making involves a coercive power which for Bersani and Dutoit Jarman may without admitting it to himself have found deeply seductive But in Caravaggio this power is renounced and the result is Jarman's most profound unsettling and astonishing reflection on sexuality and identity Kicking the Pricks Derek Jarman, 1997 Soon after he started filming The Last of England which had much autobiographical content in 1986 Derek Jarman started work on this book which contains diary entries interviews and notes from the script He writes of his childhood and his kleptomaniac father the process through which he came to terms with his homosexuality his early work as a painter and designer and his debut as a film director Serious themes are followed throughout as Jarman writes of what he regards as the corruption of the cinema industry the moral and personal consequences of the AIDS virus and the down side of Thatcher's Britain
