The Apocalypse Of Baruch:

The Apocalypse of Baruch Robert Henry Charles, 1896 Apocalypse Of Baruch And The Assumption Of Moses, 2006-02 It is no longer news that the texts that became the official Bible excluded apocryphal books in many cases because they didn't serve the worldview of the ruling classes Early in the 20th century R H Charles translated and edited a series of these texts In 2003 we published The Book of Enoch apocrypha describing the hierarchy of angels and demons Now we are pleased to publish this significant end times text Writing at the time of the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 AD Baruch converses directly with God in a series of visions The fall of Jerusalem is given as part of a larger end of the world scenario Baruch then receives prophecy periods of light and darkness shall come symbolized by rains bright and black corresponding to alternating times when humanity lives in peace and harmony then dark periods when evil reigns Of particular note is the apocalypse when the Messiah appears again on earth This alternate tale of the apocalypse inspires hope evil is punished condemned to hell and cast off the earth while those left behind are actually the righteous who will enjoy literally heaven on earth Obviously a differing view from the currently in vogue idea of rapture Also included in this edition is The Assumption of Moses an apocryphal fragment noted to have influenced other descriptions of the apocalypse included in the Bible For at the heights of the world they shall dwell And they shall be made like unto the angels And be made equal to the stars And they shall be changed into every form they desire From beauty into loveliness And from that light into the splendour of glory

The Apocalypse of Baruch R. H. Charles, 2006 An important religious text that was not included in the Bible Was written in the first person by Baruch who describes his experiences both before and after the destruction of Jerusalem in approximately 67 AD A fascinating work because we know the original historical setting that it was written in More importantly this rare book is a compilation of prophecies and revelations which have been surprisingly accurate in light of modern history After World Wars I and II the prophecies recorded by Baruch became clarified Therefore although Charles reflects skepticism of Baruch in some cases it may no longer be warranted in light of these newer events It is left to the reader to explore the value of these prophecies An extensive Index lists all other known scriptures that are directly connected to or closely parallel the text This work is an important addition for anyone involved in a serious study of religions and apocryphal texts

Apocalypse of Baruch is a composite work written in the latter half of the first century of the Christian era It is thus contemporaneous with the chief writings of the New Testament Its authors were orthodox Jews and it is a good representative of the Judaism against which the Pauline dialectic was directed In this Apocalypse we have almost the last noble utterance of Judaism before it plunged into the dark and oppressive years that followed the destruction of Jerusalem

For ages after that epoch its people seem to have been bereft of their immemorial gifts of song and eloquence and to have had thought and energy only for the study and expansion of the traditions of the Fathers But when our book was written that evil and barren era had not yet set in breathing thought and burning word had still their home in Palestine and the hand of the Jewish artist was still master of its ancient cunning And yet the intrinsic beauty of this book must to a great degree fail to strike the casual reader Indeed it could hardly be otherwise For the present English version is a translation of the Syriac the Syriac was a translation of the Greek and the Greek in turn a translation from the Hebrew original The Apocalypse of Baruch Baruch,1917 The Arabic Text of the Apocalypse of Baruch F.
