Romanticism, Memory, and Mourning Mark Sandy, 2016-04-08 The subject of Romanticism Memory and Mourning could not be timelier with Žižek's recent proclamation that we are living in the end times and in an era which is preoccupied with the process and consequences of ageing We mourn both for our pasts and futures as we now recognise that history is a continuation and record of loss Mark Sandy explores the treatment of grief loss and death across a variety of Romantic poetic forms including the ballad sonnet epic elegy fragment romance and ode in the works of poets as diverse as Smith Hemans Blake Wordsworth Coleridge Byron Shelley Keats and Clare Romantic meditations on grief however varied in form and content are self consciously aware of the complexity and strength of feelings surrounding the consolation or disconsolation that their structures of poetic memory afford those who survive the imaginary and actual dead Romantic mourning Sandy shows finds expression in disparate poetic forms and how it manifests itself both as the spirit of its age rooted in precise historical conditions and as a proleptic power of lasting transhistorical significance Romantic meditations on grief and loss speak to our contemporary anxieties about the inevitable but unthinkable event of death itself

Daoist Phenomenology Jay Goulding, 2025-05-01 Jay Goulding's Daoist Phenomenology represents a lifelong project of interpolating the works of Martin Heidegger with the interweavings of Daoism and Zen Illustrating styles of reading complex texts from Europe and East Asia Goulding moves away from horizontal reading of simple comparisons on a single plain to vertical reading as a deep dive of ideas into ancient worlds Vertical Reading is hermeneutic strategy that captures the depth of connection between phenomenology and Daoism especially Heidegger and classical Daoists Laozi and Zhuangzi His method reveals Daoist implications of Dogen's Zen and draws on writing and ideas from popular culture including Jules Verne H P Lovecraft Philip K Dick George Lucas Star Wars universe and martial artist Bruce Lee Original and wide ranging Goulding's interconnected approach to phenomenology and Daoism enhances and promotes further intercultural dialogues between two great traditions in world philosophies

New Earth Rising Gary Alan Gibson, 2004 This 152 000 word novel begins in the Spring of 2010 as two of the world's superpowers plunge into a conflict over the control of a newly discovered deposit of a very rare metal At the same time a world renowned radio astronomer finally comes face to face with the fulfillment of a life long dream just as the funding of his research is nearing its end The uncertainties of the time lead the central character Michael Brown into a series of visions and soul searching analyses about the universe and his role within it The introspective process he undertakes makes him ready for the next step direct contact with an alien civilization The initial meeting comes suddenly and in a manner that he never would have expected He soon learns that the visiting aliens are on a peaceful mission He also learns that he is a prominent figure in their plans Under the guidance of a congenial alien ambassador and her wise and compassionate leader Michael Brown begins an epic journey of spiritual significance As the story progresses he learns of how alien culture ascended to inter galactic prominence through its faith and understanding of the natural laws Each step of the journey leads him to a higher level of awareness causing him to view the Creator and the universe in a brand new way Brown s path to enlightenment encompasses numerous mini adventures that include the abduction of his family by the government an illness that temporarily renders him comatose and a personal confrontation with evil These events and the supernatural experiences that the aliens provide him serve to prepare him for a future that he never could have imagined Using highly evolved spirituality and the sophisticated technology at their disposal the extraterrestrials start a transformation that will ultimately affect the way Earth s people relate to each other As the story ends we learn that Michael Brown will be responsible for managing this important transformation It will be up to him to lead the planet to a new time of peace and harmony in the New Earth Rising Siege and Storm: Chapters 1-5 Leigh
