

THE DIARY OF A FORTY-NINER

Edited by Chauncey L. Canfield

❧ "A romance of fact, more permanently satisfying than the best fiction of adventure."—THE NEW YORK TIMES, 1931 ❧ "For the actual date of the first strictly realistic picture captured by the American scene, we must go back to the early fifties/sixties. The Diary of a Forty-Niner, found in an abandoned miner's hut in California, is a remarkable piece of authenticity and naturalism. In it, in the flesh and at work in her gold-sprinkled mountain stream, we find the true forty-miner. This book will not die."—Theodore Dreiser, THE AMERICAN SPECTATOR, 1932 ❧ ❧
