Publishers Trade List Annual, 1992, 1992 A Re-mapping of Womanhood and Creativity Clara Oropeza, PhD, 2025-04-24 A Re-mapping of Womanhood and Creativity investigates the diverse ways in which women set out to find a matrilineal line as a wellspring for creative transformation and through a lens of analytical psychology how we read women's literary history and narratives about womanhood While following the feminine influences that forged her own search and nature as a writer this book re-maps the life and work of Clara Oropeza's literary mother Anaïs Nin focusing on Nin's formative affinity with her mother alongside her own personal mother In this mother map Oropeza looks closely at the relationship between mothers and daughters the formation of the maternal wound and ways to move towards healing Oropeza examines the pivotal role that a reconnection to a maternal line has in shaping a woman's creative life This book argues that synthesizing our intellectual spiritual and ancestral ways of knowing away from the harmful narratives that shape our lives is essential today With scholarly and personal insight Oropeza sheds new light on how women come to shores of understanding themselves beyond unresolved familial and historical tensions Combining literature myth and psychology this book will be an illuminating read for students scholars and professionals in the areas of literature psychoanalysis and mythology This book will be crucial reading for women in particular women of color interested in the process of individuation creativity and womanhood

The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1992 Daily Modernism Elizabeth Podnieks, 2000-01-26 Redrawing established boundaries between genres Podnieks builds a broad critical and theoretical range on which she maps the diary as an aesthetic work showing how diaries inscribe the aesthetics of literary modernisms Drawing on feminist theory literary history biography and personal anecdotes she argues that the diary is an especially subversive space for women writers Podnieks details how Virginia Woolf Antonia White Elizabeth Smart and Anaïs Nin wrote their diaries under the pretence that they were private while always intending them to be published She travelled extensively to examine the original diary manuscripts and offers unique first hand descriptions of the manuscripts that underscore the artistic intentions of their authors Daily Modernism contributes to the ongoing feminist revision of literary history and in its disruption of traditional concepts of major and minor literary forms paves the way for a much needed reconsideration of the diary as a valid literary achievement

Anaïs Nin Clara Oropeza, 2018-08-06 Anaïs Nin A Myth of Her Own traces Nin's literary craft by following the intimacy of self exploration and poetic expression attained in the details of the quotidian transfigured into fiction By digging into the mythic tropes that permeate both her literary diaries and fiction this book demonstrates that Nin constructed a mythic method of her own revealing the extensive possibilities of an opulent feminine psyche Clara Oropeza demonstrates that the literary diary for Nin is a genre that with its traces of trickster archetype among others reveals a mercurial yet particular understanding of an embodied and at times mystical experience of a writer The cogent analysis of Nin's fiction alongside the posthumously published unexpurgated diaries within the backdrop of emerging psychological theories further illuminates Nin's contributions as an experimental and important modernist writer whose daring and poetic voice has not been fully appreciated By extending research on diary writing and anchoring Nin's literary style within modernist traditions this book contributes to the redefinition of what literary modernism was comprised who participated and how it was defined Anaïs Nin A Myth of Her Own is unique in its interdisciplinary expansion of literature literary theory mythological studies and depth psychology By considering the ecocritical aspects of Nin's writing this book forges a new paradigm for not only Nin's work but for critical discussions of self life writing as a valid epistemological and aesthetic form This impressive work will be of great interest to academics and students of Jungian and post Jungian studies literary studies cultural studies mythological studies and women's studies

The Cramoisy Queen Linda Hamalian, 2009-04-24 Caresse Crosby rejected the culturally prescribed roles for women of her era and background in search of an independent creative and socially responsible life Poet memoirist advocate of women's rights and the peace movement Crosby published and promoted modern writers and artists such as Hart Crane Dorothy Parker Salvador Dalí and Romare Bearden She also earned a place in the world of fashion by patenting one of the earliest versions of the brassiere Behind her public success was a chaotic life three marriages two divorces the suicide of her husband Harry Crosby strained relationships with her children and legal confrontations over efforts to establish a center for world peace As the first biographer to consider both the literary and social contexts of Crosby's life Linda Hamalian details Crosby's professional accomplishments and her personal struggles The Cramoisy Queen A Life of Caresse Crosby also measures the impact of small presses on modernist literature and draws connections between key writers and artists of the era In addition to securing a place for Crosby in modern literary and cultural history The Cramoisy Queen A Life of Caresse Crosby contributes to the field of textual studies specifically the complexities of integrating autobiography and correspondence into biography Enhanced by thirty two illustrations the volume appeals to a wide range of readers including literary critics cultural historians biographers and gender studies specialists
