Thompson, 2013-05-02 In this major new work Thompson develops an original account of ideology and relates it to the analysis of culture and mass communication in modern Societies Thompson offers a concise and critical appraisal of major contributions to the theory of ideology from Marx and Mannheim to Horkheimer Adorno and Habermas He argues that these thinkers and social and political theorists more generally have failed to deal adequately with the nature of mass communication and its role in the modern world In order to overcome this deficiency Thompson undertakes a wide ranging analysis of the development of mass communication outlining a distinctive social theory of the mass media and their impact Studies in the Theory of

Ideology John B. Thompson, 2023-11-10 The study of ideology has traditionally been concerned not only with political ideas and doctrines but also with the ways in which social relations are sustained through the representation of institutions and events These traditional concerns have been transformed in recent years by investigations into the nature of language and its role in social life Exploring the links between language and ideology has become one of the most pressing tasks of social and political analysis In this volume John B Thompson examines some of the outstanding contemporary contributions to the study of ideology He focuses primarily on European social theorists and philosophers providing concise and critical appraisals of their work In addition to assessing the contributions of well known thinkers such as Jurgen Habermas and Paul Ricoeur Thompson introduces the reader to a rich variety of authors who have been neglected in the English speaking world Cornelius Castoriadis Claude Lefort Pierre Bourdieu Michel Pecheux Jean Pierre Faye This work of these authors is analyzed with a constructive aim through a sympathetic assessment of their views Thompson formulates the elements of a novel account of ideology By addressing substantive and methodological issues as well as abstract questions of justification and critique this account seeks to integrate sociological and philosophical considerations in a unified framework for the analysis of ideology Studies in the Theory of Ideology will be essential reading for anyone interested in the most important developments in European philosophy and modern social thought This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1984 Language, Ideology and Japanese History Textbooks Christopher Barnard, 2004-03-01 The Japanese history textbook debate is one that keeps making the news particularly with reference to claims that Japan has never apologised properly for its actions between 1931 and 1945 and that it is one of the few liberal democratic countries in which textbooks are controlled and authorised by the central government There are frequent protests both from within Japan and from overseas that a biased nationalistic history is taught in Japanese schools This is the first time that all the authorised textbooks currently in use have been analysed using a critical discourse that is anchored firmly in the theory of language within society elucidating the meanings and associated ideologies created by the language of the textbooks The Things We Do with Words Aletta J. Paul's Letter to the Romans and Roman Imperialism Ian E Rock, 2017-05-25 Ian E Rock demonstrates that the Letter to the Romans may be seen as an attempt by a subordinate group to redress actual and potential issues of confrontation with the Empire and to offer hope even in the face of death Paul demonstrates that it is God's peace and not Rome's peace that is important that loyalty to the exalted Jesus as Lord and to the kingdom of God not Jupiter and Rome leads to salvation that grace flows from Jesus as Christ and Lord and not from the benefactions of the Emperor If the resurrection of Jesus the crucified criminal of the Roman Empire demonstrates God's power over the universe and death the very instrument of Roman control then the Christ believer is encouraged to face suffering and death in the hope of salvation through this power Paul's theology emerges from and is inextricably bound to the politics of his day the Scriptures of his people and to the critical fact that the God who is One and Lord of all is still in charge of the world
