The first book publication of a young and markedly distinguished literary talent is always a heartening event; this is especially so in the case of Evan Connell. Mr. Connell was born in Kansas City, Missouri, in 1924, and attended Dartmouth, the University of Kansas, and Columbia graduate school, with two years out for wartime service in the Naval Air Force. He has lived in Paris and Barcelona, and is currently living in San Francisco where he is at work on a novel and studying with the noted writer and critic Walter Van Tilburg Clark.
