The Anxious Object:

~THE ANXIOUS OBJECT. Harold Rosenberg, 1966 The Anxious Object Harold Rosenberg, 1965 The Anxious Object Brenda Jackson, Penguin Books Staff, Ronald L McDonald, 1969-02-01 Harold Rosenberg Debra Bricker Balken, 2021-10-06 Despite being one of the foremost American intellectuals of the mid twentieth century Harold Rosenberg 1906 1978 was utterly incapable of fitting in and he liked it that way Signature cane in one hand and a cigarette in the other he cut a distinctive figure on the New York City culture scene with his radiant dark eyes and black bushy brows A gangly giant at six foot four he would tower over others as he forcefully expounded on his latest obsession in an oddly high pitched nasal voice And people would listen captivated by his ideas With Harold Rosenberg A Critic's Life Debra Bricker Balken offers the first ever complete biography of this great and eccentric man Although he is now known mainly for his role as an art critic at the New Yorker from 1962 to 1978 Balken weaves together a complete tapestry of Rosenberg's life and literary production cast against the dynamic intellectual and social ferment of his time She explores his role in some of the most contentious cultural debates of the Cold War period including those over the commodification of art and the erosion of individuality in favor of celebrity demonstrated in his famous essay The Herd of Independent Minds An outspoken socialist and advocate for the political agency of art he formed deep alliances with figures such as Hannah Arendt Saul Bellow Paul Goodman Mary McCarthy Jean Paul Sartre Willem de Kooning and Jackson Pollock all of whom Balken portrays with vivid accounts from Rosenberg's life Thoroughly researched and captivantly written this book tells in full Rosenberg's brilliant fiercely independent life and the five decades in which he played a leading role in US cultural intellectual and political history Existential America George Cotkin, 2003 As Cotkin shows not only did Americans readily take to existentialism but they were already heirs to a rich tradition of thinkers from Jonathan Edwards and Herman Melville to Emily Dickinson and William James who had wrestled with the problems of existence and the contingency of the world long before Sartre and his colleagues After introducing the concept of an American existential tradition Cotkin examines how formal existentialism first arrived in America in the 1930s through discussion of Kierkegaard and the early vogue among New York intellectuals for the works of Sartre Beauvoir and Camus When the Machine Made Art Grant D. Taylor, 2014-04-10 Considering how culturally indispensable digital technology is today it is ironic that computer generated art was attacked when it burst onto the scene in the early 1960s In fact no other twentieth century art form has elicited such a negative and hostile response When the Machine Made Art examines the cultural and critical response to computer art or what we refer to today as digital art Tracing the heated debates between art and science the societal anxiety over nascent computer technology and the myths and philosophies surrounding digital computation Taylor is able to identify the destabilizing forces that shape and eventually fragment the computer art movement Fields of View A.L. Rees, 2020-10-29 Drawing on film theory literary modernism psychology and art history Fields of View elucidates an expanded network of connections between avant garde film and wider

culture In this bold and original work A L Rees identifies three key terms field frame and interval and charts their use by filmmakers and theorists such as Dziga Vertov Sergei Eisenstein Bruce Baillie Maya Deren Malcolm Le Grice and Werner Nekes from the 1920s through to the present day A seminal voice in film culture Rees left the incomplete manuscript for this book on his death and Simon Payne has subsequently carefully prepared the book for publication Fields of View is an important work that establishes a unique perspective on experimental film Ghostlier Demarcations Michael

Davidson,2023-11-10 Why do modern poets quote from dictionaries in their poems How has the tape recorder changed the poet s voice What has shopping to do with Gertrude Stein s aesthetics These and other questions form the core of Ghostlier Demarcations a study of modern poetry as a material medium One of today s most respected critics of twentieth century poetry and poetics Michael Davidson argues that literary materiality has been dominated by an ideology of modernism based on the ideal of the autonomous work of art which has hindered our ability to read poetry as a socially critical medium By focusing on writing as a palimpsest involving numerous layers of materiality from the holograph manuscript to the printed book Davidson exposes modern poetry s engagement with larger historical forces The palimpsest that results is less a poem than an arrested stage of writing in whose layers can be discerned ghostly traces of other texts This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1997

Marshall McLuhan: Renaissance for a wired world Gary Genosko,2005 This collection contains key critical essays and assessments of the writings of Canadian communications thinker Marshall McLuhan selected from the voluminous output of the past forty years McLuhan s famous aphorisms and uncanny ability to sense megatrends are once again in circulation across and beyond the disciplines Since his untimely death in 1980 McLuhan s ideas have been rediscovered and redeployed with urgency in the age of information and cybernation Together the three volumes organise and present some forty years of indispensable critical works for readers and researchers of the McLuhan legacy The set includes critical introductions to each section by the editor Forthcoming titles in this series include Walter Benjamin 0 415 32533 1 December 2004 3 vols Theodor Adorno 0 415 30464 4 April 2005 4 vols and Jean Francois Lyotard 0 415 33819 0 2005 3 vols The Avant-garde and American Postmodernity , An evaluation that tracks American culture s shift from modernism into postmodernism
