The Aphrodite Pursuit:

Tracking Hermes, Pursuing Mercury John F. Miller, Jenny Strauss Clay, 2019-01-31 Of all the divinities of classical antiquity the Greek Hermes Mercury in his Roman alter ego is the most versatile enigmatic complex and ambiguous The runt of the Olympian litter he is the god of lies and tricks yet is also kindly towards mankind and a bringer of luck His functions embrace both the marking of boundaries and their transgression but also extend to commerce lucre and theft as well as rhetoric and practical jokes In another guise he plays the role of mediator between all realms of human and divine activity embracing heaven earth and the netherworld Pursuing this elusive divinity requires a truly multidisciplinary approach reflecting his prismatic nature and the twenty contributions to this volume draw on a wide range of fields to achieve this from Greek and Roman literature epic lyric and drama epigraphy cult and religion to vase painting and sculpture In offering an overview of the myriad aspects of Hermes Mercury including his origins patronage of the gymnasium and relation to other trickster figures the volume attempts to track the god s footprints across the many domains in which he partakes Moreover in keeping with his deep connection to exchange commerce and dialogue it aims to exemplify and further encourage discourse between Latinists and Hellenists as well as between scholars of literary and material cultures Pursuit of Pleasure Jane Rendell, 2010-07-15 The Pursuit of Pleasure presents the figures of the rambler and the cyprian the Eighteenth Century precursors to the Parisian flâneur and prostitute The urban spaces traced by these figures were the clubs sporting venues operas assembly rooms streets and arcades of central London Drawing on critical theory geography and philosophy The Pursuit of Pleasure extends and critiques the discipline of architectural history from a feminist perspective The gendering of public space is considered to be a complex and shifting series of moves and looks between men and women constructed and represented through spatial and social relations of consumption display and exchange Illustrated with contemporary prints and drawings The Pursuit of Pleasure is an extraordinarily rich analysis of the gendered issues of public space at the birth of the modern metropolis Kantian Aesthetics Pursued Anthony Savile, 2019-08-07 Concerned with topics at the heart of Kant s aesthetics this provoking reading of The Critique of Judgement focuses on often misunderstood or neglected themes Starting from the issues of the truth and justifiability of our critical assertions Anthony Savile develops Kantian theory broadly across the arts and shows it working with subtlety and rigour in cases as diverse as music and architecture New light is thrown on the exemplary necessity of our aesthetic pleasures on the Antimony of Taste on the distinction between free and dependent beauty on the supposed idealism of taste and on the a priori limits of fine art Eminently subjective material is here given a place in Kant s overall idealism in a sophisticated discussion that will invite the close attention of Kant scholars and aestheticians alike Highland Pursuits Emmanuelle de Maupassant, It s 1928 and Bright Young Things are taking London by storm but debutante Ophelia s life is all mapped out marriage to a cod faced aristocrat and a life of dull respectability Refusing to play along Ophelia is banished to her ancestral home in the Highlands

Kastley,2022-12-08 A revolutionary approach to rhetoric that asks why audiences need persuading What is persuasion For some it is the ideal alternative to violence For others persuasion is simply a neutral instrumentality a valued source of soft power Both positions rest on a fundamental belief persuasion is a power that resides in a speaker acting on an audience Loving the World Appropriately asks a different more fundamental question why does an audience need persuasion In shifting our focus James Kastely delivers a provocative new history of rhetoric and philosophy one that describes rhetoric as more than a matter of effective communication and recasts persuasion as a philosophical concern central to notions of human subjectivity Ultimately Kastely insists persuasion enables us to love the world appropriately
